AT the Court at Kensington, the 15th Day of September, 1758,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the Twenty Eighth of July last, For paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, will expire upon the Thirtieth Day of this Instant September; And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards, thereby given, should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; — His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the Eighteenth Day of November next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January 1757: And likewise, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said Eighteenth Day of November next, discover any Seaman or Seamen who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Kensington, October 28.

The following Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Town of Nottingham, having been transmitted by Henry Butler, Esq; Mayor, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, Recorder of the said Town, has been by him presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Town of Nottingham.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgesses of the Town of Nottingham, in Common Council assembled, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the signal Success with which it hath pleased the Almighty to favour your Arms and Councils.

We reflect, with inexpressible Satisfaction, on the Joy which must fill your Royal Breast, while you behold the gloomy Apprehensions of your Subjects so soon dissipated; your Dominions in Germany freed from the Ravages of an insolent Enemy; the Laurels gained by your Forces under Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick; and your Great Ally and Relation triumphing over the boasted and savage Strength of Russia; a Foundation laid for extending the Commerce of your Subjects both in Africa and America; and an inestimable Jewel added to your Crown by the taking of Cape Breton.

The Zeal and steady Resolution with which your Majesty's Orders have been executed at Saint Malo and Cherburg, by the Successor of our late most worthy Representative, afford us great Consolation, while we are lamenting the Loss of a Life so valuable and so universally regretted.

The many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most gracious Government, and the long and happy Experience we have had of your paternal Care and Goodness, inspire us with the most ardent Wishes and earnest Prayers for the Continuance of your invaluable Life; and that your Great Name, and that of the King of Prussia, may descend to Posterity, not only as the joint Patrons and Asserters of the Rights of Mankind, both Civil and Religious, but as the glorious Instruments, appointed by Divine Providence, to detect and defeat the most secret and most formidable Confederacy that ever threatened the Liberties of Europe.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall in the Town of Nottingham, the Eighteenth Day of October, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty Eight.
