Kensington, October 31.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bayliffs, and Commonalty, of the City of Coventry, having been transmitted by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Archer, their Recorder, to the Right Honourable the Earl of Holderness, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which

Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bayliffs, and Commonalty, of the City of Coventry, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bayliffs, and Commonalty, of the City of Coventry, in Common Council assembled, most humbly and sincerely congratulate your Majesty upon the Success of your Arms in the important Conquest and Reduction of Cape Breton, and the Check thereby given to the ambitious Views of the French in America.

The Success of your Majesty's Army in Germany, the Captures and Destruction of the Enemy's Ships, the Acquisition made in Africa, and the Damage done to the Enemy upon their own Coasts, are Events so important to the Common Cause in general, and to the Interests and Security of these Kingdoms in particular, by restraining the dangerous Views and growing Power of France, that it cannot but afford your Majesty's faithful Subjects the most solid Satisfaction.

The late signal Success of your Majesty's magnanimous Ally the King of Prussia, is another Event so wonderfully and providentially brought about for the Security and Preservation of the Protestant Interest in Germany, and the most valuable Rights of Mankind, their Civil and Religious Liberties, that we cannot but particularly express the Joy we feel on this Occasion.

May such a Series of advantageous Events, so dispose the Minds of your Majesty's Enemies, and the Enemies of your Allies, as to be the Means, under the Direction of Providence, to hasten the great Work of a safe and honourable Peace.

May your Majesty's Reign be long continued over a People truly sensible of, and grateful for the Blessings they enjoy under it; and may those great and eminent Virtues, which are the Glory of your Majesty's Reign, and diffuse Happiness among all your People, be transmitted by your Majesty, and the Descendants of your Royal House, to latest Posterity.

Given under our Common Seal the 23d Day of October, 1758.
