Admiralty Office, November 14.

Captain Saumarez, of his Majesty's Ship Antelope, having received Intelligence in King Road, on the 31st past, that a French Ship of War was lying in Lundy Road, he immediately weighed and went in Quest of her, and on the 1st Instant the Wind was contrary, and blew hard, he beat down Channel, and, on the 1st Instant, saw her at Anchor below Ilfracombe. Upon discovering the Antelope, she weighed and stood towards her, and upon coming pretty near, hoisted her Colours, and seemed prepared to engage, but soon after hauled them down. When the Antelope came within Gun Shot, she fired at the French Ship, which she not returning. Captain Saumarez sent a Boat, with his first Lieutenant, to know if they had surrendered; but finding the Boat did not return, he bore down under her Stern, and asked if she had struck, and was answered they had. She proved to be the Biliqueux, pierced for 66 Guns, and had 64 mounted, with 417 Men.

Admiralty Office, November 14.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament passed in the 26th Year of His Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information hath been sent to this Office, That on the 2d Instant, a Vessel in Distress came to Anchor about a Mile East of Beachy Head, and the next Day, the Wind blowing hard, her Cable broke, and she drove ashore, and overfet. She proved to be the Nuestra Señora de la Guardia, Don Lorenzo Janones, Commander, bound from Cadiz to Havre de Grace, and laden with Wool, Hides, Boxes of China Ware, Casks of Wine, Coffee, Tea, Sugar, Cocheneal, Indico, a Parcel of Linen, some Rubarb and Borax, a Quantity of Physical Roots, and some other Parcels of Merchandize which are not yet unpack'd; there were Hopes of saving and drying most Part of the valuable Goods: And her Crew, consisting of 23 Men, mostly Spaniards, were all saved.
