

Constantinople, Oct. 2. There have been severe Prohibitions against Drefs renewed here again lately by the Sultan's exprefs Order; and the late Examples of Severity are so recent in the Minds of the People, that most conform to the Rules prescribed. The Vizir, by his prudent Administration, continues in full Power. The Grand Seignor, who seemed to be of a weak Constitution on his Accession to the Throne, is now extremely active, and takes much Exercise. Aly Pascha Echim Ogli, who was honoured three Times with the high Post of Vizir, died lately at his Paschalyck of Cutaya. His Body was embalmed, and brought hither to be interred in his own Mosque near the Seven Towers. He is succeeded in his Paschalyck by Muzur Aga, Brother-in-Law to the Grand Seignor.

Petersburgh, Oct. 10. The Russian Fleet was come to the Height of Revel on the 3d Instant; and the Squadron of Cronstadt was expected there every Day, if they have escaped the late violent Storm, which drove two English Ships ashore near the Mouth of the River. Yesterday two new Eighty Gun Ships were launched at the Admiralty Wharf in this City.

Dresden, Oct. 29. His Prussian Majesty having had Notice, before he left Budissin, of the Detachments sent from the Duke de Deux Pont's Army to intercept the Convoy of Prisoners, &c. has, it is supposed, ordered that Convoy, instead of coming to Dresden, to march directly to Francfort on the Oder. This Conjecture is the more probable, as it now appears that these Detachments from Deux Pont's Army have not marched on, but occupy Bischoffswerda, Stolpen, and Radberg. By our Advices of the 25th Instant, the Prussians were encamped near Gorlitz, and Marshal Daun occupied the Heights of Landes-Crone, within half a Mile of the Prussian Camp. The Prussian Troops, under the Command of Lieutenant General Itzenplitz, remain in their Camp near Dohna.

Dresden, Nov. 1. By the last Accounts received from his Prussian Majesty's Army, it appeared that there had been a Skirmish between the Prussians and a Body of Austrian Cavalry, on the 26th past, near Gorlitz, to the Advantage of the former, who began the Attack, broke the Austrians, and drove them to a Hill near Landes-Crone. The Number of Prisoners taken from the latter, in this Affair, is said to be about 600 Men, besides Officers.

Hague, Nov. 10. There does not appear to be much Probability of any farther Operations, this Campaign, between the Armies in Westphalia. Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters are at Munster, and the French seem to be filing off to their Winter Quarters.
