AT the Court at Kensington, the 7th Day of November, 1758,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the Fifteenth of September last, For paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, will expire upon the Eighteenth Day of this Instant November; And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given, should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; — His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the Thirtieth Day of December next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January 1757: And likewise, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said Thirtieth Day of December next, discover any Seaman or Seamen who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Rome, Oct. 24. The Pope, in the last Consistory, notified to the College of Cardinals, that he had confirmed to the Queen of Hungary, her Heirs, and Successors, the Title of Apostolick. The Pope having fixed the 12th of November for the Ceremony of his taking Possession, great Preparations are making for that Purpose.

Hague, Nov. 14. Count Dohna, with a Part of his Army, passed through Berlin the 7th Instant, on his Way to Saxony, leaving a Body of Troops in Pomerania, to observe the Russians, and to check any IncurSIONS of Light Troops; whilst General Manteuffel, with another Corps, is marched through Stettin, to oppose the Swedes, who continue about Prentzlow and Stromberg.

The Duc de Deux Ponts has recalled the Detachments he had sent over the Elbe, and is moved to Freyberg, which has obliged General Itzenplitz, who commands in the Absence of Prince Henry, to change his Position: He is now encamped near Kesselsdorff.

It is confidently said, that the Russians have raised the Siege of Colberg, after besieging it near a Month: The Detachment that formed the Siege thereof, is retired towards Marienwerder, and the Army under General Fermor towards Poland.

The Army under Marshal Contades is filing off continually to its Winter Quarters.

Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters are still at Munster, but nothing has happened in those Parts. Prince Ysenbourg is at Gottingen and the Neighbourhood.

Hague, Nov. 17. The Siege of Neifs has been raised; the News of his Prussian Majesty's marching that Way, having been sufficient to determine General Harsh to abandon it, which he did in the Night between the 5th and 6th Instant; and the Garrison gained a considerable Advantage over the Besiegers, in a Sally they made upon that Occasion. The King of Prussia, who stopt upon this News at Gros-Nossen, between Breslau and Neifs, immediately returned to Lusatia, to oppose the Army under the Command of Marshal Daun, which, it is reported, had marched back towards Dresden, in order to take Advantage of the King of Prussia's Absence from those Parts.

Marshal Contades has abandoned Hamm and the Lippe; and the Army under his Orders is hastening into Winter Quarters. Prince Ferdinand has likewise ordered the Army under his Command into Cantonments.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, November 20.

Orders that the Court changes the Mourning on Sunday next, the 26th Instant, for the late Margravine of Brandenburg Bareith, viz.

The Ladies to wear Black Silk or Velvet, coloured Ribbons, Fans and Tippetts.
