From Saturday December 9, to Tuesday December 12, 1758.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 7th Day of November, 1758,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the Fifteenth of September last, For paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, will expire upon the Eighteenth Day of this Instant November; And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given, should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; — His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the Thirtieth Day of December next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January 1757: And likewise, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said Thirtieth Day of December next, discover any Seaman or Seamen who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Thursday last being the Anniversary of Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales's Birth-Day, the Great Guns were fired at His Majefty's Park the Phoenix, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks. At Noon there was a splendid Appearance of the Nobility, and other Persons of Distinction, to compliment the Lords Justices upon this Occasion. In the Evening there was a Play given by their Excellencies for the Entertainment of the Ladies, and the Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy.

Admiralty Office, December 4, 1758.

MY Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty having received many repeated Complaints of divers outrageous Acts of Piracy committed on Board great Numbers of Ships, as well English as Neutral, sailing in the English Channel, by the Crews of Ships or Vessels being or pretending to be English Privateers:

Their Lordships therefore, in order to detect and bring to Justice the Persons guilty of such Piracies and Robberies, (in Violation of the Laws of Nations in general, and of this Kingdom in particular, and to the great Dishonour thereof) are pleased to promise a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, unto or amongst such Person or Persons as shall, within Three Months from this Time, discover any one or more of the Offenders guilty of any such Acts of Piracy as aforesaid, so as such Offender or Offenders shall be apprehended and duly convicted thereof.

And in regard the Committing of such Offences as aforesaid are greatly encouraged by divers Persons as Accessaries thereto, who knowingly assist, maintain, counsel, or advise the Committing of such Acts of Piracy, and also by Persons who receive Goods so piratically taken, and entertain and conceal Offenders, knowing them to have committed such Robberies:

Their Lordships therefore, in order to detect or bring to Justice the Persons guilty of such last mentioned Offences, are pleased to promise a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, unto or amongst such Person or Persons as shall, within Three Months from this Time, discover any one or more of the Offenders guilty of any such Offences last mentioned, so as such Offender or Offenders shall be apprehended and duly convicted thereof. Which said respective Rewards before mentioned, shall be paid, clear of all Deductions whatsoever, by Samuel Seddon, Esq; Solicitor of the Admiralty, immediately after the Conviction of such Offenders.

And as a further Encouragement, any of the said Offenders, (other than and except the respective Commander or Commanders of any such Piratical Ships or Vessels; who shall discover any one or more of the said Offenders, shall, on the Conviction of such Offender or Offenders so discovered, be intitled to His Majesty's most Gracious Pardon.

And their Lordships do also promise to grant, upon Request, to every Person, being a Seaman, who by making any such Discovery or Discoveries as aforesaid, shall be intitled to either to the Whole, or to any Part or Parts of any of the above-mentioned Rewards) an absolute Protection, to prevent his being impressed into His Majesty's Sea Service, during this present War with France.

J. Cleveland.

The Merchants and Insurers of London, having, at a General Meeting, had on Wednesday the 29th Day of November 1758, come to several Resolutions for the taking of proper Methods for the Discovery and Punishment of Persons guilty of Piratical Practices, by plundering of Ships, or otherwise, and of Persons who are Encouragers, Accessaries, Aiders, and Abettors thereto, who knowingly assist, or maintain, procure, command, council, or advise the committing of such Piracies, or who receive Goods so piratically taken, or entertain and conceal such Pirates and Robbers, knowing them to have committed such Robberies, in Violation of the several Acts of Parliament made for punishing of such Offences; which Practices not only tend greatly to the Dishonour of this Kingdom, but are very prejudicial and injurious to the Trade and Commerce thereof: And the said Merchants and Insurers, at the said General Meeting, having appointed a Committee for the carrying of the said Resolutions into Execution, The said Committee do hereby give Notice, that they are ready to assist and give due Encouragement to all Persons who shall impeach, make Discovery, and Proof against any Person or Persons guilty of any such Offences, either as Principals or as Encouragers or Accessaries, which Assistance and Encouragement the said Committee do hereby promise, over and above all Benefits and Rewards offered by the Lord Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Discovery of Persons guilty of such Acts of Piracy as aforesaid, and, if it shall be desired, the Names of the Person or Persons, making such Discovery or Information, shall be concealed; and, for the more ready Assistance of the Persons making such Discovery, they are desired to apply to Mess. Browne and Smith, of Austin Fryars, London.

WHEREAS by several Indentures bearing Date in February and March, 1755, the Household Goods, Stock in Trade, Debts, and other Effects of John Clark, late of the City of Bristol, Linnen Draper, and also (in Case of a Deficiency) divers of his Freehold and Leasehold Estates therein mentioned, were assigned and conveyed to George Amyand, of London, Esq; and James Reed, William Berrow, and Thomas Stretton, all of the City of Bristol, Merchants, in Trust for Payment of the said John Clark's Debts, and the Surplus (if any) to be re-assigned and re-conveyed to him, his Heirs, Executors or Administrators: The said Trustees not knowing where to apply personally to the said John Clark, do hereby give him Notice, that they are ready to settle their Accounts relating to their said Trust, and re-assign, and re-convey the Surplus of his Estate and Effects, pursuant to the Tenour of the said Indentures.

Dr.

DR. JAMES'S Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY'S ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms:
But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurifies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Low-ness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fever, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics;
it is extremely effectual in the Small Pox, Measles, and St.
Anthony's Fire; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St.
Paul's Church-yard, London; and by Mrs. Sinart, at Mr.
M'Mahon's, in Capple-street, Dublin; at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

• See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Place above-mentioned. Price 6 d.
