WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged with the French King, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God, that He will vouchsafe a special Blessing on Our Arms both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, That a Publick Fast and Humiliation be observed throughout that Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called England, Our Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, upon Friday the Sixteenth Day of February next; that so both We, and Our People, may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins; and may, in the most devout and solemn Manner, send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgments, which Our manifold Sins and Provocations have most justly deserved, and imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms, and for restoring and perpetuating Peace, Safety, and Prosperity, to Us, and Our Kingdoms: And We do strictly charge and command, That the said Publick Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in England, Our Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment, as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty. And, for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches, Chapels, and Places of Publick Worship; and to take Care the same be timely dispersed throughout their respective Dioceses.

St. James's, December 19.

The following Address of the Principal Tinnerns of the County of Cornwall, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Waldegrave their Warden: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Principal Tinnerns of the County of Cornwall, on Behalf of themselves, and all other the Tinnerns of the said County.

PERMIT us, most gracious Sovereign, with the rest of your loyal Subjects, to approach your Throne with our heartiest Congratulations upon the late signal Successes of your Majesty's Arms against France.

It is with unspeakable Joy and Satisfaction that we behold the unjust Attempts of that rapacious Enemy upon your Majesty's Dominions Abroad, avenged upon their own Territories by the vigorous Enterprizes of the British Forces, and particularly by the Reduction of Louisbourg, their most important Fortrefs in America, under our experienced and brave Commanders.

From so necessary and extensive a War, it is indeed the Misfortune of this our County to suffer in the most essential Branches of its Trade, beyond any other Part of the Kingdom: Notwithstanding which, we shall submit to all the Inconveniencies of it, with an Alacrity and Patience due from Subjects to the best of Kings, hoping that, under the Divine Providence, the Success of your Majesty's Measures, conducted by a wise and active Administration, and animated by the Voices and Hearts of your People, will soon be crowned with an honourable and advantageous Peace. But should that desirable Blessing be yet farther off than our Wishes flatter us, we humbly rely upon your Majesty's Goodness to take the languishing State of our Trade, more especially that of our Tin, into your gracious Protection, and to grant us such Relief, as your Royal Predecessors have formerly done, in the like Circumstances of Distress.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous over an obedient and grateful People, and be rendered compleatly glorious in the subduing of all your Enemies, is the ardent Prayer of your loyal Subjects the Tinnerns of Cornwall.

Dresden, Nov. 29. The Chain of the Prussian Army along the Frontiers is not yet formed, but, it is said, that they are in Possession of Gishubel, Freyberg, Chemnitz, Zwickau, and Plauen, in the Voigtland; and that the Cavalry will be sent into Thuringe, where there is Plenty of Forage; the Circle of Meissen, and both the Lusatias, being quite exhausted.

Count Dohna still continues near Leipzig.

Dresden, Dec. 6. The King of Prussia remains here in very good Health. There is a Report of a Skirmish having happened near Chemnitz between the Prussian Troops, and those of the Empire, in which the latter had lost some Men, and upwards of 100 that were taken Prisoners. The latest Accounts from Bohemia say, that the Austrians were not gone into Winter Quarters, but were cantoned along the Elbe and the Eger.

Munster, Dec. 12. The 10th Instant the Enemy sent a Detachment from Wesel, consisting of 300 Men, towards Stadloo, in Hopes to have surprized some of our advanced Posts, but finding that we were prepared to receive them, immediately retired. At the same Time another Detachment, consisting of much the same Number, marched from Wesel towards Halteren, who, it is supposed, upon being informed of the ill Success of the above-mentioned Detachment, retreated likewise without making the least Attempt.

The

The seven Squadrons of Cavalry, under the Command of Major General the Marquis of Granby, it is reported, are all settled in the Country of Paderborn, as well as can be expected.

The Lord George Sackville, Commander in Chief of the British Forces with the Allied Army, is preparing to depart from hence in a Day or two's Time, in order to pass over into England.
