Head Quarters at Munster, Jan. 17. Yesterday Morning Prince Ferdinand, attended only by one Aide de Camp, set out for Dulmen, with an Intention, as it is thought, of visiting some Part of the Chain of Posts, which His Majesty's Troops form upon the Right, extending from Stadloen to Ham. His Highness is expected back here by To-Morrow or Friday at farthest. It is said, that the King of Prussia has given Orders for raising a Battalion of Light Troops, which are to serve in this Army, and to be called Les Volontaires de Prusse. We hear that the Palatine Troops, which served in the Army of M. de Contades, have received Orders to return home.

Hague, Jan. 23. The Province of Utrecht has sent a Deputation to condole with their Highnesses the Prince of Orange and the Princess Caroline, and to receive the Oath from Prince Lewis of Brunswick as the Representative of the Captain General. It is supposed the other Provinces will soon follow their Example.
