

Breslaw, March 25. His Prussian Majesty left this Town on Friday last the 23d Instant, and the Head Quarters will be removed from hence to Rhonstock, a House belonging to Count Hoberg, situated between Hohen Freidberg and Strigau.

Hambourg, March 30. General Kleift raised the Blockade of the Island of CaninchenWerder, and evacuated Schwerin on the 25th instant, it appearing, that the Reduction of that Island would cost some Time, and a considerable Number of Men. The Prussians now direct their March towards Swedish Pomerania, and were by the latest Advices at Gustrow. Several small Detachments are likewise said to be still dispersed up and down that Dutchy, that serve to hasten the raising of the Men and Money required of that Country.

Fulde, April 1. The Troops under the Command of Prince Ferdinand, came upon the Enemy's Flank by their March hither; which was executed through Roads that no Troops had ever passed before. Yesterday the Hereditary Prince of Brunswick, at the Head of two Squadrons of Prussian Hussars, attacked, above Molrichstadt, the Regiment of Hohenzollern Cuirassiers, and broke them entirely: A great Number of them was left upon the Spot, but no more than Fifty-five were made Prisoners of War, the Remainder having fled to the Mountains. A Battalion of Wurtzburghers, which was abandoned by the Cavalry, became a Sacrifice to the Hussars, who took a Hundred and Thirty of them, and cut the rest to Pieces.

Four Hessian Hussars have brought to Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters here, two very rich Standards, which they took, in the Neighbourhood of Tann, from the Regiment of Savoye, which is said to have suffered considerably.
