The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday May 10. to Thursday May 13. 1675.

Lithfield, May 6.

Thaving been the Custom of this Ancient and Loyal City, to choose the most eminent and desering Personages to be their Recorders, our Bayliss and Greizens this day, have Unanimoully made choice of the Right Honourable Thomas Earl of Danby, Lord High Treasurer of England, in the place of the late Duke of Somerfet.

Miples, April 23. Our Letters from Melazzo, and Reggio in Calabria, feem to confirm the News we had of the great misunderstandings that are between the French and the Meffinefes; and some speak farther of a Conspiracy that hath been discovered, for the letting in the Spienfards, on account whereof, several persons, and forme of Note, had been imprisoned by the Duke de Wienna, May 5. Here is arrived the Chancellor of the Elector of Majence, who hath had Audience of the chief Minister of this Court; we do not know the particulars of what he comes to negotiate, but in general we are told; that he affures the Emperor of the good intentions of the Elector his Master. To morrow their Imperial Majesties return from Zeil to Laxenburgh, and after having passed some short time there, will come back hither. Some Hostilicies have, we hear, been lately committed by the Garison of Newhauses.

Himburgh May 11. The Sued sh Troops are now on their march; several Passengers come hither who were at the Rendezvous at Dam, report that the Army confifts in 20 000 fighting Men, and now we are in continual expectation to hear of their being entred upon some Action: We have Letters from Sietin of the 11 fin-flant, which advise, that General Wrangel was there; that the day before the Artillery, and that day, viz. the 11, twelve Regiments of Foot passed through that place, and that the day following the rest of the Suedish Army would follow, but that it was not known whither they designed their march. The 12 instant, the Count of Winditz grats arrived at Lunenburgh, in quality of Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperor.

Stratburgh, May 11. Upon the news of the march of the Imperial Troops, the French begin to draw together; those that have had their quarters in the upper Alfaira, and in Suntgow, have orders from the Marquis de Vaubran to march through Markircherdal, and to Rendezvous the 17 instant at Dieft, and from thence they will march directly towards the Sair, to join the other Forces that are drawn together in that part; the next week, we are told, Monfieur de Turenne is certainly expected at Metz. The 8 instant, parted hence Prince Herman of Baden, to go and conter with General Montecuculi, which having done, he will return hither; his Excelleney has caused 8 small Vessels to be armed, and provided with all things necessary, which are to lie here, for the greater security of our Bridge. An Imperial Commis-fury is arrived here, and, it is said, he comes to creet a Magazine in this place, it being supposed that the Imperial Army will act most in these parts this Campagne. The 8 inflant, General Monu quen'i had his Head-quarters at Mulheim, marching towards the Necker. The French have very confiderably Reinforced the Garifons at Zaverne and Haguenam. On Tuelday last, 10 French Officers, who had been here to provide their Equipage, teturning to their Quarters, were met by a party of Boors, called Snaphanes, and were all killed by them: Francfort, May 12. Yesterday, and this day, the Duke of Lorrain's Troops passed the Main here; and march in three Parties towards Coblents to pass the Rhine there, and so to continue their way towards Bon and Cologne; the Lunenburgh Troops, under the Com-mand of the Duke of Holftein, will likewife pass the Rhine at Coblents, and take the faine way. The ninth instant, the Imperial Army that passed the Main here had its Head-quarter at Michelstat, marching in great dili-gence towards Hailbron, whicher the Imperial Commisfaries are gone before, to provide all things for its subsili-We do not yet hear that the Brandenburgh Forces begin to move, some think that they fifst expect their Elector back from Gleves. The Troops of the feveral Circles are not so ready to take the Field as were to be Cotogne, May 13. The three Imperial Regiments of. Trautmans dorf, Harrant and Gallas, which remained in these parts, passed yesterday the Rhine at Bon, and are marched towards the Main, to join with the Army commanded by General Montecuculi. The old Duke of Lorrain is hourly expected here, and some pretend to have advice of his arrival at Coblems. The Bishop of Munfers Troops do not yet begin to march.

schlesiadt, May 14. The Troops which are to compose the Army to be commanded by Monsieur de Turonne, march incessantly into this Countrey, and the 10 of this month is appointed their general Rendezvous in this Neighborhood; and according to the common calculation, they will make up an Army of between 30 and 40000 Men. The Imperialifts are sooner in the Fields than was expected. General Montecuculi is at present at Hailbron, and there the Troops that came from Bon; and passed the Main at Francfort, and those from Suabia, are to join; and that done, they will take in hand, as is faid, some great Action. The Marquess de Vanas is said, some great Action. The Marquess de Van-brun has Reinsorced the Garison at Brisac, and at Phitipsburg there is faid to be 6000 Men in Garison. Yesterday 600 Suiffers passed through Brifac, on their march towards Strasburgh, there they are to lie for the security of the Bridge of that City over the Rhine.

Hague, May 17. Yesterday morning their Electoral Highnesses of Brandenburgh parted hence for Amsterdam, where they are this day treated by the Regents of that City at dinner in the Stadthouse; from thence their Electoral Highnesses will continue their journey towards Cleves. To morrow morning the Prince of Oranges Regiment of Guards marches hence towards the Renidezvous at Bergen-op-zeom, whither all our Troops are now moving; the Infantry pass by Water, and the Cazvalry by Land: and to morrow likewise towards Evening, the Prince of Orange intends to leave this place, and to follow his Forces. The States of Holland will be very fuddenly affembled, for the raifing of Monies towards the defraying of the Charges of the Campagne.