ON the 20th Day of this Instant, about Eleven o'Clock in the Night was cut out of the Harbour of Ilfordcombe, and carried away, as supposed (by some French Prisoners from South Molton, who were there on Parole or from Bideford) A fine new Pilot Boat, of the Burthen of 20 Tons, or thereabout; Fifth Malt in the Partners, with four Iron Hoops on the same, an exceeding good Sailer, all Sails tanned of a good Colour. If the same shall happen to be retaken and brought into any Port of England, the Captors are desired to acquaint Mr. John Fosse, Collector of His Majesty's Customs of the said Port of Ilfordcombe, who will give all Satisfaction reasonably demanded for the same. N. B. If the same Boat be fitted out as a Privateer from France, she may do great Damage to the Coasting Trade in these Channels.
