AT the Court at St. James's, the 14th Day of April, 1759,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 20th of February last, to direct, that the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, and of Thirty Shillings for every Able Bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, should be continued to be paid, immediately after the first Muster, to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who should, on or before the 21st Day of this Instant April, enter themselves in the Royal Navy; and that the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, should likewise be continued to be paid to such Person or Persons, who should, on or before the Day above-mentioned, discover any concealed Seamen, so that such Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service; Which Time being now near expiring, His Majesty doth hereby order, with the Advice of His Privy-Council, that the said Bounties and Rewards be continued to be paid from the said 21st of this Instant April, until the 2d Day of June next. And whereas since the Issuing the aforementioned Order of the 20th of February, His Majesty had been given to understand, that there were dispersed in various Parts of the Kingdom, great Numbers of Seamen and Seafaring Men, some of whom were endeavouring to conceal themselves in order to avoid His Majesty's Service, and that others of them might be inclined to enter as Volunteers into the Service, and reap the Benefit of His Majesty's aforementioned Bounties, provided that the Justices of the Peace, or other Magistrates (near to whom the said Seamen reside) were authorized and directed to receive them, and to cause them to be conducted to any of the Ships of War—His Majesty was thereupon pleased, by His Orders in Council of the 9th of March last, to Require and Command all the Justices of the Peace, and Mayors of Cities and Towns throughout the Kingdom of England and Wales, and likewise the Provosts of Edinburgh, Glasgow, and Aberdeen, in Scotland, to cause strict Search to be made, within their respective Jurisdictions, for all straggling Seamen and Seafaring Men, fit for His Majesty's Service, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, and to take them up, and send them by careful Conductors to a Sea Officer employed in raising Men on Shore, or to the nearest Sea Port Town, in order to their being put on Board His Majesty's Ships of War: Which Conductors were to be paid by the said Sea Officer on Shore, or the Captains of such Ships to whom such Seamen should be delivered, Twenty Shillings for each Seaman, and Six-pence a Mile for each Man, for every Mile they might respectively Travel:—And the said Justices, and other Magistrates, were thereby likewise required and commanded, to receive all such Seamen and Seafaring Men, who should appear before them, and offer to enter as Volunteers, in Case they were of Health and Ability fit for His Majesty's Service, and not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, and to grant to each Seaman a Certificate of such his voluntary Offer, and to cause them to be conducted, in like Manner, and with the same Allowances, as above directed with respect to Straggling Seamen:—And the Sea Officer on Shore, or the Captains of such Ships, to whom such Volunteer Seamen should be delivered, were directed to pay to every such Seaman, after his being so put on Board (upon producing the Certificate aforementioned) the Bounties of Three Pounds to every able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings to every ordinary Seaman;—And His Majesty judging it necessary for His Service, that all the afore-recited Directions, contained in His Majesty's said Orders in Council, of the 9th of March last, should be continued until the 2d Day of June next, doth hereby Order, with the Advice of His Privy Council, that the same be continued, and remain in full Force, until the said 2d Day of June next accordingly—Whereof all the aforesaid Justices of the Peace, and other Magistrates, as likewise all other Persons, whom it may concern, are to take Notice, and yield due Obedience hereunto.

AT the Court at St. James's the 14th Day of April, 1759.

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 15th of September last, for prohibiting the exporting out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the 29th Day of this Instant April—And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some longer Time, —His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, Require, Prohibit and Command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master General, Lieutenant General, or principal Officers of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 29th Day of this Instant April, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship, or lade, any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on Board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf, first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the Twenty Ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign, entituled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt Petre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition."—And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Lieutenant General and principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Ziegenhayn, April 27. On the 15th Instant our Army began to march from Windeken, after our Wounded having first been removed from thence to Budingen, and reached no farther that Day than Marienborn, where we remained the 16th. The 17th, we proceeded to Bingenheim, the 18th to Grimbergen, the 19th to Alsfeld, where we continued till the 23d, when we marched from thence to Ziegenhayn. The French under M. de Broglie never stirred from their Intrenchments, while there was any Apprehension of our being within Distance to return against them. On the 18th M. de Blaisel's Light Troops attacked our Rear Guard, but were repulsed. The Day following an Officer, who was carrying Orders to a Battalion of Grenadiers, and two Squadrons of the Regiment of Finckenstein, for that Day's March, was unfortunately taken; by which Accident the Detachment did not begin their March in Time, and not following the proper Route, were surrounded by the Enemy between Munster and Queckeborn. The Grenadiers either drove off the Enemy, or kept them at such a Distance, as to be able to rejoin the Army without any other Loss than that of their Baggage, which was taken; but the Dragoons were either dispersed or made Prisoners of War.

Landshut, April 21. This Day a Chasseur arrived from General Fouquet with Accounts, that he had taken Sacquendorff and Troppau, in which last Place he made the Garrison Prisoners of War, consisting of two hundred and twenty Men and five Officers; the Austrians having withdrawn their Troops, and retired into Moravia.

Admiralty Office, May 7, 1759.

Captain Eastwood, of His Majesty's Sloop Diligence, has taken and brought into Penzance a French Privateer Brig called the Dispatch, Thomas Le Pettice, Commander, of Morlaix, last from Cherburg; she mounted 10 Carriage and 8 Swivel Guns, and had 34 Men.

Admiralty Office, March 13, 1759.

MY Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty having received many repeated Complaints of divers outrageous Acts of Piracy committed on Board great Numbers of Ships, as well English as Neutral, sailing in the English Channel, by the Crews of Ships or Vessels being or pretending to be English Privateers:

Their Lordships therefore, in order to detect and bring to Justice the Persons guilty of such Piracies and Robberies, (in Violation of the Laws of Nations in general, and of this Kingdom in particular, and to the great Dishonour thereof) are pleased to promise a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, unto or amongst such Person or Persons as shall, within Three Months from this Time, discover any one or more of the Offenders guilty of any such Acts of Piracy as aforesaid, so as such Offender or Offenders shall be apprehended and duly convicted thereof.

And in regard the Committing of such Offences as aforesaid are greatly encouraged by divers Persons as Accessaries thereto, who knowingly assist, maintain, counsel, or advise the Committing of such Acts of Piracy, and also by Persons who receive Goods so piratically taken, and entertain and conceal Offenders, knowing them to have committed such Robberies:

Their Lordships therefore, in order to detect or bring to Justice the Persons guilty of such last mentioned Offences, are pleased to promise a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, unto or amongst such Person or Persons as shall, within Three Months from this Time, discover any one or more of the Offenders guilty of any such Offences last mentioned, so as such Offender or Offenders shall be apprehended and duly convicted thereof. Which said respective Rewards before mentioned, shall be paid, clear of all Deductions whatsoever, by Samuel Seddon, Esq; Solicitor of the Admiralty, immediately after the Conviction of such Offenders.

And as a further Encouragement, any of the said Offenders, (other than and except the respective Commander or Commanders of any such Piratical Ships or Vessels) who shall discover any one or more of the said Offenders, shall, on the Conviction of such Offender or Offenders so discovered, be intitled to His Majesty's most Gracious Pardon.

And their Lordships do also promise to grant, upon Request, to every Person, being a Seaman, (who by making any such Discovery or Discoveries, as aforesaid, shall be intitled to either to the Whole, or to any Part or Parts of any of the above-mentioned Rewards) an absolute Protection, to prevent his being impressed into His Majesty's Sea Service, during this present War with France.

The EIGHTH EDITION,

Revised, Corrected, and altered to the present Practice of the Army,

A TREATISE of MILITARY DISCIPLINE. In which is laid down and explained the Duty of the Officer and Soldier, through the several Branches of the Service.

By HUMPHRY BLAND, Esq;

Lieutenant General of His Majesty's Forces.

Printed for R. Baldwin, W. Johnston, J. Richardson, T. Longman, G. Keith, S. Crowder, P. Davey and B. Law, T. Caillon, and H. Woodgate and Bookers.

The EDITOR'S Preface to this New Edition.

General BLAND's Treatise of Military Discipline, originally published in the Year 1727, is a Work to universally known and esteemed, as to stand in need of no Encomiums here: But as the Discipline of the English Troops has undergone great Changes since that Time, it was thought, that a Revision of it, in order to expunge such Parts as were become obsolete, and, by substituting the new, to adapt it to the present Practice of the Army, would be an Undertaking both acceptable and useful to the Public. This Consideration induced the Editor to assume the Task; and, as his principal Motive was to serve the Officers in general, but especially such as have not been long in the Service, he flatters himself, they will indulge him with their Approbation.

By the KING's Patent,

HIS MAJESTY having been graciously pleased to grant his Royal Letters Patent, bearing Date at Westminster the 17th Day of October 1757, in the 25th Year of his Reign, unto Richard Rock, of the Parish of St. Bridget, otherwise Bride's, London, Licentiate in Medicine, for his New Compound Medicine, or Anti-Veneral Cathartic Electuary, for the true Cure of fresh Veneral Injuries, and all the lurking Relicks or Remains of old ones, which he has brought to a surprizing Degree of Perfection in the Cure of the several Stages of the Veneral Distemper, from the lightest Infection to the most inveterate Degree thereof, without breaking or impairing the Constitution, enervating the human System, or leaving any Foulness or Weakness behind: This is therefore to acquaint the Publick, for whose Use and Benefit the said Letters Patent were principally obtained, that the said most admirable Electuary is sold by him at the Golden Head and Key, Bell Savage Inn Gate-way, Ludgate-Hill, London, at only 6s. and a Book of plain Instructions (by the Help of which every one may be his own Physician) given with each Pot: Where Advice is to be had, and all Debilities, Obstructions of the urinary Passages, and Gleet, are absolutely cured.

N. B. The Electuary is sold only by the Author as above-mentioned. Beware of Counterfeits.

By the KING's Patent,

THE Stomachic Lozenges, for Disorders of the Stomach and Bowels, which, at the same Time that they are extremely pleasant and agreeable to take, are one of the best Remedies yet discovered, for certainly and speedily curing most Disorders of the Stomach and Bowels; such as the Cholic, and all Cholekic Complaints, fixed Pains of the Stomach and Bowels, Indigestion, Weakness and Relaxation of the Stomach; Wind, cold Phlegm, and Want of Appetite; likewise for expelling the Gout from the Stomach upon the Extremities, and also immediately relieving those troublesome Consequences of a bad Digestion, the Heartburn, and all acid Crudities or sour Risings; as well as for preventing all the ill Effects of hard Drinking, especially of bad Wine, four Punch, stale Beer, &c. The excellent Effects of these Lozenges in the above Disorders have been proved by Thousands, after other Remedies, and even the Bath and Tunbridge Waters had been used in vain. To prevent Counterfeits, each Box of these Lozenges is sealed with an Impression having these Words, Stomachic Lozenges By Royal Patent; and, by Appointment of the Patentee, are sold only at Mr. Newbery's, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, opposite the North Door of the Church; and at Mr. Bayley's, Perfumer, at the Civit-Cat, opposite Suffolk-Street, at the Bottom of the Haymarket.
