Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 31, to Saturday August 4, 1759.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 24th Day of July, 1759,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council of the 2d of June, 1758, to direct, that for the better preventing the Plague from being brought into this Kingdom, all Privateers, and all Persons, Goods and Merchandizes on Board the same, coming from the Mediterranean, should make their Quarantine for Forty Days, and strictly conform themselves in all Respects to the Rules and Regulations required to be observed by Ships and Vessels coming from Smyrna, and other Parts of the Levant, and the Coast of Barbary—And whereas His Majesty hath received Information that the Plague doth at this Time rage with great Violence in many Parts of the Levant, the Morea, and other adjacent Places; and it being apprehended that all Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, whether Traders, Cruizers, or others, may have Communication with the Ships and Vessels coming from some of the said infected Places—His Majesty doth therefore judge it necessary, that the beforementioned Quarantine, laid upon Privateers cruising in the Mediterranean, should be extended to all Ships and Vessels whatsoever, coming from or through the Mediterranean: And to that End, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, and command, that all Ships and Vessels whatsoever, coming from or through the Mediterranean, and all Persons, Goods and Merchandizes on Board the same, that are already arrived, or shall hereafter arrive in any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark or Man, do make their Quarantine for Forty Days, and do likewise strictly conform themselves in all Respects to the Rules and Regulations required to be observed by Ships and Vessels coming from Smyrna, and other Parts of the Levant, and the Coast of Barbary.—And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the

[Price Three-Pence.]

Time being of the said respective Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 11th Day of July, 1759,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy-Council, doth hereby Declare and Order, That all such of His Faithful Subjects, who shall Inlist themselves as Soldiers in His Majesty's Land Service, from this 11th Day of July, shall not be sent out of Great Britain, and shall be entitled to their Discharge in Three Years, or at the End of the War if they choose it—And His Majesty doth hereby further Order, That all Soldiers, who may have Deserted before the First of June last, shall be pardoned for the same, on Condition they join the Corps they last served in by the 20th of August next—And in Case the Regiment they last served in should be out of the Kingdom, that they may then surrender themselves to any other, in which they may serve, and be entitled to His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

W. Sharpe.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 26th Day of June, 1759,

The Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fifteenth of May last, "For giving Encouragement to Seamen, and Able-bodied Landmen, to enter themselves on Board His Majesty's Ships of War; for granting Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves; for pardoning such Seamen as have deserted, and shall return into the Service; and also for taking up all straggling Seamen", will expire on the Third Day of July next.—And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the several Encouragements thereby given, should
