From Saturday August 25, to Tuesday August 28, 1759.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 10th Day of August, 1759,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council of the 11th of July last, to declare and order, (amongst other Things) That all such of His faithful Subjects, who should from and after that Time enlist themselves as Soldiers in His Land Service, should not be sent out of Great Britain, and should be intitled to their Discharge in three Years, or at the End of the War, if they should chuse it;—His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby most graciously repeat and confirm the same, with relation to such as shall hereafter enlist on those Conditions; as also to such as have been enlisted in any Corps from the 11th of July last to this Day—But whereas Doubts have arisen with Respect to the Extent and Meaning of His Majesty's said Order,—His Majesty in Council doth therefore hereby declare, That the Conditions therein contained are not meant or intended to extend to such who shall enlist themselves in Great Britain, to serve in Regiments Abroad, whether Ireland or elsewhere, or to such who may chuse to enlist in any of His Majesty's Corps in the usual Manner, without Limitation of Time or Place of Service.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 10th Day of August, 1759,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fifteenth of May last, "For giving Encouragement to Seamen, and Able bodied Landmen, to enter themselves on Board His Majesty's Ships of War; for granting Rewards for discovering

"such Seamen" as shall conceal themselves; for "pardoning such Seamen as have deserted, and "shall return into the Service; and also for "taking up all straggling Seamen", was, by Order in Council of the 26th of June last, prolonged and extended from the 3d of July, to the 18th of this Instant August — And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer; — His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, that the Time limited by the said Order in Council, be prolonged and extended from the aforesaid 18th Day of this Instant August, to the 29th Day of September next, and that the Bounties and Rewards given and granted by His Majesty's aforementioned Proclamation, be continued to be paid until the said 29th Day of September next: — Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Sharpe.

Hague, August 24. The Army under the Command of Prince Ferdinand entered the Country of Waldeck on the 13th, and directed its march so as to gain the Flank of the Enemy, who was then posted in the Neighbourhood of Cassel, which however M. de Contades thought proper to abandon on the 18th, and seems to be retiring towards Marpourg. On the 19th, Major Fridricks, of the Hanoverian Chasseurs, summoned that City, which surrendered, after some Cannon Shot, with a Garrison of 400 Men Prisoners of War, together with 1500 Wounded, which the Enemy had been obliged to leave behind them: A very considerable Magazine likewise fell into our Hands there.

Luckner's Hussars, on the 15th, routed a considerable Detachment of the Enemy at Volckmiffen.

On the 17th, the Hereditary Prince dislodged from Wolfshagen a Part of M. d'Armentieres's Corps; and, on the same Day, the Duke of Holstein took, Sword in Hand, a whole Battalion
