AT the Court at Kensington, the 10th Day of August, 1759,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fifteenth of May last, "For giving Encouragement to Seamen, and Able bodied Landmen, to enter themselves on Board His Majesty's Ships of War; for granting Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves; for pardoning such Seamen as have deserted, and shall return into the Service; and also for taking up all straggling Seamen", was, by Order in Council of the 26th of June last, prolonged and extended from the 3d of July, to the 18th of this Instant August—And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer;—His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, that the Time limited by the said

Hague, Sept. 7. By the last Accounts Prince Ferdinand's Army still remained encamped at Wetter; and the French kept their Position behind the Ohm. It is supposed however, that they cannot continue there, but will choose rather to take a Camp between Giessen and Wetzlar; a few Days must necessarily determine that Point. The Hereditary Prince, who Commands a Detachment of the Allied Army upon the Right, is always close upon the French, and continually beating up their Quarters. His Highness has crossed the Lahne, and encamped on the 2d Instant near Lohausen, and on the same Day pushed forward, with a Part of his Corps, to Nieder Weimar, where he surpris'd the Enemy, took two Pieces of Cannon, and several Prisoners, without any Loss on his Side.

We have received Accounts here, that the Russians marched from their Camp near Francfort upon the Oder, and left that Town on the 29th past, seeming to direct their Course towards Lusatia: Whereupon the King of Prussia marched from Furstenwalde, where he was incamped, crossed the River Sprehe, and advanced to Beeskow on the 30th, and from thence to Lubben on the 31st; General Finck having been left behind, with a small Body of Men, in the Camp of Furstenwalde. A Corps of Austrians has joined the Army of the Empire; but that Junction has not prevented the Prussians under General Wunsch from retaking Wittenberg, and marching towards Torgau.
