By the Lords Justices General, and General Governors of Ireland,

A PROCLAMATION.

George Armagh. Shanon. John Ponsonby.

WHEREAS His Majesty hath signified unto us His Royal Pleasure, that the Parliament of this Kingdom, which now stands Prorogued to Tuesday the Eighteenth Day of September Instant, be further Prorogued to Tuesday the Sixteenth Day of October next; then to meet and sit for the Dispatch of Business; We do therefore Publish and Declare, That the said Parliament be, and accordingly the said Parliament is, hereby further Prorogued to Tuesday the Sixteenth Day of October next; and the same shall be then held at Dublin, and sit for the Dispatch of Business: Whereof the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this present Parliament, are to take Notice, and to give their Attendance accordingly.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 11th Day of September, 1759.

By their Excellencies Command,
Tho. Waite

GOD Save the KING.

Torgau, Sept. 10. On the 3d Instant, our Corps under General Wunsch, passed the Elbe at this Place, on our March to Cossford, and on the 4th we reached Grossen-Hahn, where we made 60 Hussars Prisoners. That very Evening we pushed forward towards Dresden, and, at the Distance of a Mile from thence, met with a considerable Body of Hussars, Croats, and Hungarian Infantry, that were posted near Drachenberg, and immediately attacked them. The Enemy was drove from one Height and one Thicket to another, till we came within Sight of Dresden. The Cannonade, and the Fire of the Small Arms, continued the whole Day, without its being possible for us to discover if that City was still in the Possession of our Troops or not. We were however of Opinion that it had capitulated; and, for that Reason, we retreated that Night to Grossen-Hahn, and the next Day, the 7th, to Cossdorf. Whilst we were in our Way, Advice was received, that the Army of the Empire was again before this Place, and had summoned the Commandant. Three of our Battalions therefore, and the whole Cavalry, marched with all Expedition to its Relief. The Night passed quietly; but, on the 8th, after reconnoitring the Enemy, the Attack was resolved on. The Infantry, which had been left behind, arrived by Degrees, and filed off, as they came up, by the Town into the Gardens in the Neighbourhood, where they had an Hour's Rest. The Enemy cannonaded us for three Hours without any Effect, so that we did not answer it till our heavy Artillery, and some Battalions and Squadrons, were posted on both our Flanks. At One o'Clock in the Afternoon we entered the Plain: Our Lines were formed; and we began the Attack with such Success upon the Enemy's Left, which was posted in the Vineyards, that we broke it entirely, after they had rallied four Times. The Enemy's whole Camp, with their Tents, Camp-Equipage, and seven Pieces of Cannon, fell into our Hands. The Pursuit lasted above an Hour; the Enemy retreating toward Eulenbourg. The Number of Prisoners we made upon this Occasion exceeds Four Hundred, including Eleven Officers. Our Loss, in killed, does not go beyond Twenty, among whom is Major Kircheng of the Regiment of Hoffman. All our Men, both Infantry and Cavalry, did their Duty.

We have just now received Intelligence that Lieutenant General Finck has been detached with a Body of Eight or Ten Thousand Men to join us, in Consequence of Advices received that General Haddick was upon his March to reinforce the Prince of Deux Ponts.
