

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 22, to Tuesday September 25, 1759.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 10th Day of August, 1759.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council of the 11th of July last, to declare and order, (amongst other Things) That all such of His faithful Subjects, who should from and after that Time enlist themselves as Soldiers in His Land Service, should not be sent out of Great Britain, and should be intitled to their Discharge in three Years, or at the End of the War, if they should chuse it;—His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby most graciously repeat and confirm the same, with relation to such as shall hereafter enlist on those Conditions; as also to such as have been enlisted in any Corps from the 11th of July last to this Day—But whereas Doubts have arisen with Respect to the Extent and Meaning of His Majesty's said Order,—His Majesty in Council doth therefore hereby declare, That the Conditions therein contained are not meant or intended to extend to such who shall enlist themselves in Great Britain, to serve in Regiments Abroad, whether Ireland or elsewhere, or to such who may chuse to enlist in any of His Majesty's Corps in the usual Manner, without Limitation of Time or Place of Service.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 10th Day of August, 1759.

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fifteenth of May last, "For giving Encouragement to Seamen, and Able bodied Landmen, to enter themselves on Board His Majesty's Ships of War; for granting Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves; for pardoning such Seamen as have deserted, and shall return into the Service; and also for taking up all straggling Seamen", was, by Order in Council of the 26th of June last, prolonged and extended from the 3d of July, to the 18th of this Instant August — And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer; — His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, that the Time limited by the said Order in Council, be prolonged and extended from the aforesaid 18th Day of this Instant August, to the 29th Day of September next, and that the Bounties and Rewards given and granted by His Majesty's aforementioned Proclamation, be continued to be paid until the said 29th Day of September next: — Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Sharpe.

Hague, Sept. 21. By Letters from Prince Ferdinand's Army of the 16th Instant, we are informed, that his Serene Highness's Head Quarters were still at Neider-Weymar. M. de Contades likewise remained in his former Position at Anroth. M. d'Armentieres is encamped with Part of his Corps between Cologne and Nuys, having with the rest reinforced the Garrison of Wesel.

No farther News has arrived here since the last Post, of the Operations of the different Armies in Lusatia, and upon the Confines of that Country.

From Saxony we hear, that the Prussians had retaken Leipzig the 13th Instant, and made there three Battalions Prisoners of War; and were marched towards Dresden, where, it was expected, the Generals Finch and Wunsch, with the respective Corps under their Command, would join.

Whitehall, September 25.

The King has been pleased to grant unto the Right Honourable Sir Richard Glyn, Knight, Lord Mayor of the City of London, and his Heirs Male, the Dignity of a Baronet of the Kingdom of Great Britain.

 the Hands of Mr. James Head, Town Clerk of the said Corporation.* John Kimber, Mayor.

Admiralty-Office, Sept. 7, 1759.

WHEREAS divers Foreign Neutral Ships or Vessels have, during the present War with France, been at different Times, in the Course of their respective Voyages, Piratically Robbed on the British Seas, by the Crews, or Parts of the Crews of several English Ships or Vessels, who were, or pretended to be Privateers; And whereas in order effectually to prosecute the Persons who have committed any such Robberies, it is necessary to prove the Name of each respective Ship or Vessel so robbed, and the Name of the Master or Commander thereof, and the Time when, and the Species and Quantities of Goods Piratically taken, and their Values, with as much Exactness, as the Nature and Circumstances of the Case will admit of; And as it is hardly possible to make such Proofs without the Evidence of proper Persons, who belonged to, and were on Board each particular Ship or Vessel at the Time of its being Robbed; And whereas my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have, pursuant to the Directions of the Statute in that Behalf, ordered and appointed a Sessions of Oyer and Terminer and Goal Delivery to be held for the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of Great Britain, at Justice Hall in the Old Bailey, London, on Monday the 29th Day of October next,
 for the Trying (amongst other Things), of Persons accused of the aforesaid Offences, several of whom are now in Custody, and may then be tried, in Case such Proofs as are above-mentioned shall be made of Robberies committed, and it shall appear by other Evidence, that they were concerned therein: And to the End that Persons, guilty of such Offences as aforesaid, may be brought to Justice, their Lordships are pleased to give this Publick Notice, That Samuel Seddon, Esq; their Solicitor, has Directions to prosecute, on His Majesty's behalf, all Persons against whom proper Evidence can be produced touching the said Offences; And that the Master and Mate, or others, who were belonging to, and on Board any Foreign Neutral Ship or Vessel, at the Time of its being Piratically Robbed as aforesaid, may apply to the said Samuel Seddon, at his House in Piccadilly, London, either in Person or by Letter, and inform him of such Particulars relating to the Premises aforesaid, as they can give Evidence of.

Admiralty-Office, Sept. 9, 1759.

NOTICE is hereby given, That in Pursuance of the Directions of a certain Act passed in the 1st Session of Parliament, entitled, An Act to explain and amend an Act made in the Twenty-ninth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act for the Encouragement of Seaman, and the more speedy and effectual Manning His Majesty's Navy; and for the better Prevention of Piracies and Robberies by Crews of private Ships of War, a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Goal Delivery for the Tryal of Offences committed on the High Seas within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held on Monday the 29th Day of October next, at Justice Hall in the Old Bailey, London, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning.

Notice is also hereby given, That for the future an Admiralty Session will be held in the several Months of March and October in every Year, pursuant to the Directions of the said Act of Parliament.

J. Cleveland.

Shobdon Court, September 2, 1759.

Whereas, in pursuance of the several Statutes now in Force for the better ordering of the Militia Forces in this Kingdom, His Majesty's Lieutenant of the County of Hereford did heretofore summons and appoint a Meeting at the Green Dragon in the City of Hereford, that every Person qualified to serve as an Officer in the Militia in the said County, and willing to accept a Commission therein, might then deliver his Name in Writing, or cause it to be delivered, to His Majesty's said Lieutenant, or to such Person as should be authorized by him to receive the same, specifying the Rank in which he was willing to serve: And whereas a Number of Persons sufficient to serve as Officers in the Militia of the said County did not offer themselves at the said Meeting, therefore His Majesty's Lieutenant of the said County of Hereford doth hereby summons another Meeting to be held at the Green Dragon in the City of Hereford aforesaid on Monday the 1st of October, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, that every Person qualified and willing to serve as an Officer in the Militia of the said County, may, at the said Meeting, deliver his Name in Writing, or cause it to be delivered, to His Majesty's Lieutenant, or to such Person as shall be authorized to receive the same, specifying the Rank in which he is willing to serve; and also to the Intent that such Elections may be concerted at the said Meeting as may be most conducive to the faithful Execution of the said Statutes.
