Hague, Sept. 21. By Letters from Prince Ferdinand's Army of the 16th Instant, we are informed, that his Serene Highness's Head Quarters were still at Neider-Weymar. M. de Contades likewise remained in his former Position at Anroth. M. d'Armentieres is encamped with Part of his Corps between Cologne and Nuys, having with the rest reinforced the Garrison of Wesel.

No farther News has arrived here since the last Post, of the Operations of the different Armies in Lusatia, and upon the Confines of that Country.

From Saxony we hear, that the Prussians had retaken Leipzig the 13th Instant, and made there three Battalions Prisoners of War; and were marched towards Dresden, where, it was expected, the Generals Finch and Wunsch, with the respective Corps under their Command, would join.
