And We do hereby further declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, That the said Parliament shall, on the said Thirteenth Day of November next, be held and sit for the Dispatch of divers weighty and important Affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required to give their Attendance accordingly at Westminster on the said Thirteenth Day of November next.

Given at Our Court at Kensington, the Twenty Eighth Day of September, 1759, in the Thirty Third Year of Our Reign.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 28th Day of September, 1759,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fifteenth of May last, "For giving Encouragement to Seamen, and Able bodied Landmen, to enter themselves on Board His Majesty's Ships of War; for granting Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves; for pardoning such Seamen as have deserted, and shall return into the Service; and also for taking up all straggling Seamen", hath been prolonged and extended to the 29th of this Instant September: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, that the said Time be prolonged and extended from the aforesaid 29th Day of this Instant September, to the 9th Day of November next; and that the Bounties and Rewards given and granted by His Majesty's aforesaid Proclamation, be continued to be paid until the said 9th Day of November next:—Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 10th Day of August, 1759,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council of the 11th of July last, to declare and order, (amongst other Things) That all such of His faithful Subjects, who should from and after that Time enlist themselves as Soldiers in His Land Service, should not be sent out of Great Britain, and should be intitled to their Discharge in three Years, or at the End of the War, if they should chuse it;—His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby most graciously repeat and confirm the same, with relation to such as shall hereafter enlist on those Conditions; as also to such as have been enlisted in any Corps from the 11th of July last to this Day—But whereas Doubts have arisen with Respect to the Extent and Meaning of His Majesty's said Order,—His Majesty in Council doth therefore hereby declare, That the Conditions therein contained are not meant or intended to extend to such who shall enlist themselves in Great Britain, to serve in Regiments Abroad, whether Ireland or elsewhere, or to such who may chuse to enlist in any of His Majesty's Corps in the usual Manner, without Limitation of Time or Place of Service.

Hague, Sept. 25. According to the last Accounts received from Prince Ferdinand's Army, his Serene Highness marched the 19th to Corisdorff, where his Head Quarters remained on the 21st Instant. The Grand Army was encamped about two Miles from Gießen, which was in their Front, with their Right at Rotheim and the Left to Weismar. General Wangenheim and the Prince of Bevern were advanced along the Lahne opposite to Wetzlar. The French Camp was on the other Side of that River in different Corps, extending from the Right of Gießen to Wetzlar, of which they were in Possession.

There are certain Advices that the King of Prussia was on the 17th at Cobus, from whence it was supposed he would march the next Day to Forst. Prince Henry's Army was at Lauban and Weissenberg: The Russians were at Guben: And Marshal Daun was at Bautzen; and had pushed a Corps to Spremberg; but, nothing of Importance had then passed between the respective Armies.
