Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 9, to Saturday October 13, 1759.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 8th Day of October, 1759.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty
in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty hath received Information, That Thomas Saunders, belonging to the Ship Penelope, and Richard Thomas, James Piffey, and Edward Beats, belonging to the Ship Hopewell, have broken Quarantine, and made their Escape, whilst the said Ships were under Quarantine in the Port of Bristol.—To the End therefore that the said Offenders, and every of them, may be brought to condign Punishment—His Majesty is pleased to Order, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, that the Sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS shall be paid to such Person or Persons as shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, either of them the said Thomas Saunders, Richard Thomas, James Piffey, and Edward Beats, so as they, or either of them, may be convicted of the said Offence.—Which Sum, the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are hereby directed and required to pay accordingly—And His Majesty doth hereby strictly charge and command, all Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, and other Peace Officers, and all His loving Subjects, that they do use their utmost Diligence, by all lawful Ways and Means, in and about the apprehending the said Offenders, and every of them.

F. Vernon.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 28th Day of September, 1759,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fifteenth of May last, "For giving Encouragement to Seamen, and Able bodied Landmen, to enter themselves on Board His Majesty's Ships of War; for granting Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves; for pardoning such Seamen as have deserted, and shall return into the Service; and also for taking up all straggling Seamen", hath been prolonged and extended to the 29th of this Instant September: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, that the said Time be prolonged and extended from the aforesaid 29th Day of this Instant September, to the 9th Day of November next; and that the Bounties and Rewards given and granted by His Majesty's aforementioned Proclamation, be continued to be paid until the said 9th Day of November next:—Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Blair.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 10th Day of August, 1759,

P R E S E N T,

in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council of the 11th of July last, to declare and order, (amongst other Things) That all such of His faithful Subjects, who should from and after that Time enlist themselves as Soldiers in His Land Service, should not be sent out of Great Britain, and should be intitled to their Discharge in three Years, or at the End of the War, if they should chuse it;—His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby most graciously repeat and confirm the same, with relation to such as shall hereafter enlist on those Conditions; as also to such as have been enlisted in any Corps from the 11th of July last to this Day—But whereas Doubts have arisen with Respect to the Extent and Meaning of His Majesty's said Order,—His Majesty in Council doth therefore hereby declare, That the Conditions therein contained are not meant or intended to extend to such who shall enlist themselves in Great Britain, to serve in Regiments Abroad, whether Ireland or elsewhere, or to such who may chuse to enlist in any of His Majesty's Corps in the usual Manner, without Limitation of Time or Place of Service.

Hoyerswerda, Sept. 27. Prince Henry's Head Quarters. His Royal Highness left the Camp of Hermisdorff near Gorlitz on the 23d, at Seven in the Evening, and after an almost incredible March from thence by Rothenburg to this Place, (which is at the full Distance of Eleven German Miles) on the 25th, about Five o'Clock in the Afternoon, had the good Fortune to surprize the whole Corps of General Vela, encamped behind this Town. The Attack was very brisk, and lasted about three Quarters of an Hour, when the Austrians gave Way, and fled into the Woods in the Neighbourhood; but our Hussars pursuing, and partly surrounding, them,
