Westminster, November 13.

THIS Day, the Lords being met, a Message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by Sir Henry Bellenden, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, desiring their Attendance in the House of Peers; the Commons being come thither accordingly, the following Speech of the Lords Commissioners, appointed by His Majesty, for holding this Parliament, was delivered by the Lord Keeper to both Houses.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IN Pursuance of the Authority given to us, by His Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal, amongst other Things, to declare the Cause of His holding this Parliament, His Majesty has been graciously pleased to direct us to assure you, That He esteems Himself particularly happy, in being able to call you together, in a Situation of Affairs, so glorious and advantageous to His Crown and Kingdoms.

His Majesty sees, and devoutly adores, the Hand of Providence, in the many signal Successes, both by Sea, and Land, with which His Arms have been blessed, in the Course of the last Summer; and, at the same Time, His Majesty reflects, with much Satisfaction, on the Confidence, which you placed in Him, by making such ample Provisions, and intrusting Him with such extensive Powers for carrying on a War, which the Defence of our valuable Rights, and Possessions, and the Preservation of the Navigation and Commerce of His Majesty's People, had made both just and necessary.

We have it also in Command from His Majesty to acquaint you, that the happy Progress of our Successes, from the taking of Goree, on the Coast of Africa, to the Conquest of so many important Places in America, with the Defeat of the French Army in Canada, and the Reduction of their Capital City of Quebec, effected with so much Honour to the Courage and Conduct of His Majesty's Officers both at Sea and Land; and with so great Lustre to His intrepid Forces; together with the important Success obtained by His Majesty's Fleet off Cape Lagos; and the effectual blocking up, for so many Months, the principal Part of the Navy of France, in their own Ports; are Events, which must have filled the Hearts of all His Majesty's faithful Subjects, as well as His own, with the sincerest Joy; and, His Majesty trusts, will convince you, that there has been no Want of Vigilance, or Vigour, on His Part, in exerting those Means, which you, with so much Prudence, and publick spirited Zeal, put into His Majesty's Hands.

That our Advantages have extended farther; and the Divine Blessing has favoured us in the East Indies, where the dangerous Designs of His Majesty's Enemies have miscarried; and that valuable Branch of our Trade has received great Benefit and Protection.

That the memorable Victory gained over the French, near Minden, has long made a deep Impression on the Minds of His Majesty's People. And that if the Crisis, in which that Battle was fought; the superior Numbers of the Enemy, and the great and able Conduct of His Majesty's General, Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick, are considered; that Action must be the Subject of lasting Admiration and Thankfulness. That, if any Thing could fill the Breasts of his Majesty's good Subjects with still farther Degrees of Exultation, it is the distinguished and unbroken Valour of His Majesty's Troops; owned and applauded by those whom they overcame. The Glory they have gained is not merely their own; but, in a national View, is one of the most important Circumstances of our Success, as it must be a striking Admonition to our Enemies, with whom they have to contend.

That His Majesty's good Brother and Ally the King of Prussia, attacked and surrounded by so many considerable Powers, has, by his Magnanimity, and Abilities, and the Bravery of His Troops, been able, in a surprizing Manner, to prevent the Mischiefs concerted, with such united Force, against him.

His Majesty has farther commanded us to observe to you, that as His Majesty entered into this War, not from Views of Ambition, so He does not wish to continue it, from Motives of Resentment. The Desire of His Majesty's Heart is, to see a Stop put to the Effusion of Christian Blood; whenever such Terms of Peace can be established, as shall be just and honourable for His Majesty, and His Allies; and, by procuring such Advantages, as, from the Successes of His Majesty's Arms, may, in Reason and Equity, be expected shall bring along with them full Security for the future; His Majesty will rejoice to see the Repose of Europe restored, on such solid and durable Foundations; and His faithful Subjects, to whose liberal Support and unshaken Firmness His Majesty owes so much, happy in the Enjoyment of the Blessings of Peace and Tranquillity: But, in order to this great and desirable End, His Majesty is confident you will agree with Him, that it is necessary to make ample Provision for carrying on the War, in all Parts, with the utmost Vigour.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

We are commanded by His Majesty to assure you, that the great Supplies, which were given the last Session, have been faithfully employed for the Purposes, for which they were granted; but the uncommon Extent of this War, and the various Services necessary to be provided for, in order to secure Success to His Majesty's Measures, have unavoidably occasioned extraordinary Expences; an Account of which will be laid before you.

His Majesty has also ordered the proper Estimates for the Service of the ensuing Year to be prepared and laid before you; and His Majesty desires you to grant Him such Supplies, as shall be necessary to sustain, and press, with Effect, all our extensive Operations against the Enemy; and, at the same Time, by the Blessing of God, to repel and frustrate their daring Designs against His Majesty's Kingdoms.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

His Majesty has, in the last Place, been graciously pleased to command us to repeat to you, the Assurances of the high Satisfaction His Majesty takes in that Union, and good Harmony, which is so conspicuous amongst His faithful Subjects; happy in seeing it continued and confirmed. And to observe to you, that Experience has shewn, how much we all owe to it; and that nothing else can effectually secure the true Happiness of His People,

St. James's, November 12.

The following Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars, of the University of Cambridge, was this Day presented to His Majesty by His Grace the Duke of Newcastle, Chancellor of the University, attended by James Burrough, Esq; Vice-Chancellor; the Rev. Dr. Richardson, Master of Emanuel College; the Rev. Dr. Law, Master of Peter-House; and the Rev. Dr. Caryl, Master of Jesus College; Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously. They had all the Honor to kiss His

His Majesty's Hand ; and His Majesty was pleased to confer the Honor of Knighthood upon James Burrough, Esq; Vice-Chancellor.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Cambridge.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AT a Time when your Majesty's Subjects are hastening from all Parts, to testify in your Royal Presence their unfeigned Joy on the repeated Successes, with which the Divine Providence has blessed your Majesty's Arms ; it would be unpardonable in us, the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of your Loyal University of Cambridge, who have been distinguished by so many Marks of your Majesty's peculiar Favour, not to appear among the first in presenting our Congratulations on so happy an Occasion.

The many and signal Proofs which your Majesty has given of your constant Attention to the Safety, Honour, and Interests of these Kingdoms, must for ever endear your Majesty's Name to all your British Subjects.

Your Majesty's vigorous and effectual Support of the Protestant Religion, so essential to its Preservation against the most powerful Combination of its Enemies, will remain a lasting Monument of your distinguished Zeal and Steadiness in its Defence.

The rapid and victorious Progress of your Majesty's Arms in America, and the Reduction of Quebec, under all the Disadvantages of Numbers and Difficulties of Situation, must have made your Enemies sensible how dangerous it will ever be, by repeated Incroachments, to awaken the Resentment of a brave and injured People. Our Joy for an Event of such Importance to these Kingdoms would have been compleat, had it not been allayed by a Loss which can never be sufficiently lamented.

Permit us also to congratulate your Majesty on the Success of that memorable Day, when the Bravery of your Troops on the Plains of Minden was animated by the Justice of their Cause, and inspired by the Love of Liberty : A Day as glorious to their illustrious Commander, as fatal to the vain Hopes of the Enemy, who forgetting the common Ties of Humanity, meant to insure their Success by unexampled Ravage and Desolation, and, as the Instruments of arbitrary Power, aimed at Conquest only to enslave.

The threatened Invasion of these Kingdoms carries with it the Appearance of a last Effort of an haughty and ambitious Power. But we trust that the united Affections and Zeal of your Majesty's Subjects, and the Vigilance and well known Intrepidity of your Naval Commanders, will, under the Divine Protection, render any such Attempt here impracticable to those, who have fled from us in every other Quarter of the World.

We beg leave to assure your Majesty, that it shall be our constant Endeavour to instil into the Minds of the rising Generation, with the Care of whom we may be intrusted, a due Sense of those inestimable Benefits, which we owe to your Majesty's paternal Goodness.

May the King of Kings long continue to guard your Majesty's sacred Person and your Royal Family. May He inspire your Majesty's Posterity with the same firm Attachment to the true Religion, the same real Affection for your Subjects, and the same steady Attention to preserve the Liberties of Europe, and the Constitution of these Kingdoms, which have been the distinguishing Marks of your Majesty's glorious Reign, and the great Source of Happiness to your People.

Given under our Common Seal this 8th Day of November, 1759.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Town of Lancaster, having been transmitted by Francis Reynolds, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, to the Right Honourable the Earl of Holderness, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty : Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Town of Lancaster, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Town of Lancaster, in Common Council assembled, with Hearts full of Joy, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty, upon Occasion of the many and continued Successes obtained by your Majesty's Arms through the whole Course of this Year, that no Age can equal.

Permit us, most Gracious Sovereign, among the other great and renowned Actions of this Year, to take Notice of the Acquisition of Guadaloupe, as opening a new Source of Wealth to your Majesty's Kingdoms. But above all let the Defeat of the French Army in Canada, the taking of Quebec, and the Virtues of that Gallant Officer, who, with his last Breath, bequeathed it as a Legacy to his Country, be had in everlasting Remembrance : A Conquest that (after having before been more than once attempted in vain) seems reserved by Providence to add new Lustre to the Glories of your Majesty's Reign : A Conquest so important in itself, and so extensive in its Consequences, as utterly to destroy the long concerted Plan of French Power, and for ever to put an End to French Hopes in North America.

The signal and wonderful Advantages gained in so short a Time over an inveterate Enemy, by your Majesty's Forces in Europe, Asia, Africa, and America, and so peculiarly interesting to the British Nation, are at once a sure Proof of the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and the Justice of your Cause—May the same Series of Success be always attendant on your Majesty's Arms, in order to your obtaining such a Peace, as may secure to your Majesty's Subjects all the Benefits of Trade and Commerce, and be durable and lasting, by reducing effectually the exorbitant Power of a Prince, whom Treaties cannot bind, and whose restless Ambition nothing can satisfy.

Given under the Common Seal of the Town of Lancaster, this Third Day of November, in the Year of Lord, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty Nine.

The following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Earl of Holderness, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty : Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, in Common Council assembled, most sincerely join in the general Acclamations of your People, upon the late Defeat of the Enemy in Canada, and the Taking of Quebec ; and most humbly beg your Majesty will accept our particular Congratulations upon this happy Event, as glorious to your Majesty's Arms, as it is interesting and important to these Kingdoms.

To these we beg Leave to add our sincere Congratulations, upon the Successes obtained by your Majesty's Arms, both by Sea and Land, within the Compass of the last Year, in the various Parts of the World, where they have been exerted against the Common Enemy ; Successes so truly great in themselves, and advantageous in their Consequences, as to be equaled by few Instances, either in the History of this or any other Country.

However we may be elated by these Effects of your Majesty's Wisdom and Magnanimity, and of the Valour and Bravery of your Fleets and Armies, yet we cannot but be sensible of the Loss your Majesty and the Publick has sustained in the Death of that Heroic Heroick Commander, who gloriously fell in the Cause of his Country, whilst bravely executing the Plans he had formed for the Conquest of Quebec, and in the Prosecution of which it was happily effected.

When we reflect upon these great and glorious Successes, upon the wise and prudent Measures taken to render abortive the Designs of our Enemies to invade these Kingdoms, and introduce amongst us the Horrors and Desolation of War; and, above all, upon that Paternal Care and Affection which has distinguished your Majesty as the Father of your People, our Tongues are unable to express what our Hearts feel upon these Occasions.

May Divine Providence long keep your Majesty under its special Care and Protection, and continue to direct your Councils, and give Success to your Arms, till you shall be enabled to put an End to a just and necessary War, by a safe, honourable, and lasting Peace.

Given under our Common Seal the 2d Day of November, 1759.

The following Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City of Edinburgh, has been presented to His Majesty by Capt. Drummond, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Lord Provost, the Magistrates and Council of your City of Edinburgh, beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most humble and sincere Congratulations upon those great and prosperous Events, which will for ever render this Year conspicuous in the History of Great Britain.

Your Majesty's Measures have been concerted with Wisdom, pursued with Steadiness, and executed with Spirit. The Divine Blessing hath accompanied your prudent and vigorous Efforts, and hath crowned your Arms, by Sea and Land, with a Succession of Victories, more rapid and more beneficial than former Ages can boast. The Schemes of the French in Europe have been disconcerted, by a Battle no less decisive than splendid: Valuable Settlements in Africa have been seized; their Attempts, in the East-Indies, have been repulsed; an Acquisition of great Importance to the Trade of the Nation has been gained from them in the West Indies; and, in North America, not only have their Encroachments been checked, and the Frontiers of the British Colonies rendered secure and respectable; but a just War has been carried into the Heart of their Dominions; and Quebec, the Capital of their Empire in that Part of the World, has been conquered by your Majesty's Arms. While your Majesty's Enemies have felt, during the Course of the War, how formidable, and how extensive in its Operations the native Power of Great Britain; your Subjects have observed, with the warmest Gratitude, your Majesty's constant Attention to those Interests of the Nation, which are of chief Importance; and are ready to exert themselves with that Zeal, which becomes a free People, for the Defence of your Sacred Person, and for the Support of your Government. We humbly pray, That Almighty God may long preserve your Majesty's valuable Life; that he may continue to bless your Arms, and that he may render the Conclusion of this War as honourable as the Success of it has been great.

We have the Honor to be,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most obedient, most dutiful, and loyal Subjects and Servants, The Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your City of Edinburgh, in Council assembled. Signed by their Order,

P. Drummond, Provost.
