

Heroick Commander, who gloriously fell in the Cause of his Country, whilst bravely executing the Plans he had formed for the Conquest of Quebec, and in the Prosecution of which it was happily effected.

When we reflect upon these great and glorious Successes, upon the wise and prudent Measures taken to render abortive the Designs of our Enemies to invade these Kingdoms, and introduce amongst us the Horrors and Desolation of War; and, above all, upon that Paternal Care and Affection which has distinguished your Majesty as the Father of your People, our Tongues are unable to express what our Hearts feel upon these Occasions.

May Divine Providence long keep your Majesty under its special Care and Protection, and continue to direct your Councils, and give Success to your Arms, till you shall be enabled to put an End to a just and necessary War, by a safe, honourable, and lasting Peace.

Given under our Common Seal the 2d Day of November, 1759.

The following Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City of Edinburgh, has been presented to His Majesty by Capt. Drummond, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Lord Provost, the Magistrates and Council of your City of Edinburgh, beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most humble and sincere Congratulations upon those great and prosperous Events, which will for ever render this Year conspicuous in the History of Great Britain.

Your Majesty's Measures have been concerted with Wisdom, pursued with Steadiness, and executed with Spirit. The Divine Blessing hath accompanied your prudent and vigorous Efforts, and hath crowned your Arms, by Sea and Land, with a Succession of Victories, more rapid and more beneficial than former Ages can boast. The Schemes of the French in Europe have been disconcerted, by a Battle no less decisive than splendid: Valuable Settlements in Africa have been seized; their Attempts, in the East-Indies, have been repulsed; an Acquisition of great Importance to the Trade of the Nation has been gained from them in the West Indies; and, in North America, not only have their Encroachments been checked, and the Frontiers of the British Colonies rendered secure and respectable; but a just War has been carried into the Heart of their Dominions; and Quebec, the Capital of their Empire in that Part of the World, has been conquered by your Majesty's Arms. While your Majesty's Enemies have felt, during the Course of the War, how formidable, and how extensive in its Operations the native Power of Great Britain; your Subjects have observed, with the warmest Gratitude, your Majesty's constant Attention to those Interests of the Nation, which are of chief Importance; and are ready to exert themselves with that Zeal, which becomes a free People, for the Defence of your Sacred Person, and for the Support of your Government. We humbly pray, That Almighty God may long preserve your Majesty's valuable Life; that he may continue to bless your Arms, and that he may render the Conclusion of this War as honourable as the Success of it has been great.

We have the Honor to be,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most obedient, most dutiful, and loyal Subjects and Servants, The Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your City of Edinburgh, in Council assembled. Signed by their Order,

P. Drummond, Provost.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 9th Day of November, 1759:

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Proclamation of the 15th of May last, "For giving Encouragement to Seamen and able bodied Landmen to enter themselves on board His Majesty's Ships of War; for granting Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves; for pardoning such Seamen as have deserted and shall return into the Service; and also for taking up all stragling Seamen," hath been prolonged and extended to this Ninth Day of November,—And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer:—His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His privy Council, hereby Order that the said Time be prolonged and extended from this Ninth Day of November, to the Thirty-First Day of December next, and that the Bounties and Rewards given and granted by His Majesty's aforementioned Proclamation, be continued to be paid until the said Thirty-First Day of December next—Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Blair.
