From Tuesday November 20, to Saturday November 24, 1759.

St. James's, November 23.

THIS Day the humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Oxford, was presented to His Majesty by the Reverend Doctor Brown, Vice-Chancellor, and Provost of Queen's College, being introduced by the Lord of the Bed-Chamber, and attended by Sir Roger Newdigate, Member for the University; Doctor Gregory, Dean of Christ Church; Doctor Niblet, Warden of All Souls College; and Doctor Hudesford, President of Trinity College; which His Majesty received very graciously. And they all had the Honour of Kissing His Majesty's Hand.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and faithful University of Oxford, beg leave, amidst the general Acclamations of a joyful and united People, to approach your sacred Person with Hearts full of Duty and Affection, most humbly to congratulate your Majesty on the many glorious and happy Events of this memorable Year.

The uninterrupted and unparalleled Series of Successes, which have attended your Majesty's Plans of Operation, during the Course of a War, so uncommonly complicated and extensive, will ever stand distinguished with a peculiar Lustre in the Annals of Great Britain: Successes, equally remarkable for their Number, Variety and Importance: Every Quarter of the Globe having afforded Scenes for your Majesty's signal Triumphs both by Sea Land, and been a Witness of the repeated Disappointments and Defeat of your restless and ambitious Enemies.

Among the numerous and happy Effects of your Majesty's prudent and vigorous Measures; whether concerted for the Support of the Protestant Religion and the Liberties of Europe; or more immediately directed towards the Preservation and Advancement of the Commercial Interest of your British Dominions; the truly difficult and glorious Conquest of Quebec (attempted in vain more than once by your Royal Predecessors) doth, on many Accounts, demand more particularly our warmest Congratulations. So valuable and important an Acquisition seems to have been reserved by Providence to compleat and crown all the preceding Glories of your Majesty's most auspicious Reign.

In this and many other arduous and successful Enterprises, we cannot but see, and, after your Majesty's great and pious Example, devoutly adore the Hand of Divine Providence, which hath, on all Occasions, so visibly supported the Justice of your Cause and the Progress of your Arms.

And we doubt not, but that, under the Protection of the same good Providence, the utmost Efforts of an enraged and desponding Enemy will be baffled and frustrated through your Majesty's known Wisdom and Experience, through the Abilities and Activity of your Ministers, the Courage and Conduct of your Commanders, the Intrepidity of your Forces, and that perfect Harmony and Union, which happily subsists amongst all your Subjects.

May your Enemies themselves perceive at length, and acknowledge the Interposition of Heaven, so conspicuous in your Majesty's Favour; and, by entertaining more serious Sentiments of Equity and Moderation, give your Majesty an Opportunity of accomplishing the Desire of your Heart, by dispensing to contending Nations the greatest and most comprehensive of all temporal Blessings, a general and lasting Peace!

May your Majesty long live to enjoy such glorious Fruits of your unwearyed Labours for the Publick Good! And may there never be wanting in your Royal House a Succession of Illustrious Princes, inheriting your Majesty's Crown and Virtues, and reigning, like your Majesty, in the Hearts of all their Subjects!

Given at our House of Convocation, this Twentieth Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1759.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, and Freemen of the Corporation of Cambridge, has been presented to His Majesty by the Honourable Charles Sloane Cadogan, and Soame Jenyns, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council, and Freemen of the Corporation of Cambridge.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council, and Freemen of the Corporation of Cambridge, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the very great and signal Successes that have attended your Majesty's Arms in the four different Quarters of the World, from the Reduction of the Island of Goree on the Coast of Africa, to the Defeat of the French Army in Canada, and the surrender of Quebec, their Capital.

We cannot but sincerely lament the Loss of the General who fell so gloriously in the Cause of his Country, and whose Virtues and heroic Conduct have rendered his Memory for ever Dear and Sacred to his Fellow-Citizens.

It is with the most unfeigned Joy and Satisfaction that we see the Zeal and Unanimity of all your Majesty's faithful Subjects in their respective Counties, who, throughly sensible of, and gratefully acknowledging, your Majesty's paternal Care, are all ready to sacrifice their Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of your Royal Person and Government.

Given under our Common Seal, the Twentieth Day of November, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty Nine.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Borough of Boston, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Robert Bertie, one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Borough of Boston.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council, of the ancient Borough of Boston, most most humbly beseech your Majesty to accept our warmest Congratulations upon the many great and important Successes which have attended your Fleets and Armies in every Quarter of the known World.

Such Events will for ever remain an undoubted Proof of your Majesty's great Wisdom, and of your paternal Regard for the Interest and Prosperity of your People: They will be lasting Monuments of the great Abilities of those who have the Honour to assist in your Majesty's Councils, and of their Courage and Conduct who are entrusted with the Execution of your Royal Commands.

If it may be allowed, amidst such national Subjects of Joy, to lament the Loss of one brave General, dying in the Service of his King, and of his Country; Permit us, Royal Sir, not to pass over in Silence the great Merit of those who shared in every Part of that Enterprize, and who so happily completed that glorious Success which justly calls forth the publick Acknowledgments of their fellow Subjects.

May your Majesty never want such Servants, may you long reign over a free, happy, and grateful People, may every succeeding Period of your Majesty's Life be equally glorious with the present, and may the Crown of these Realms descend upon your latest Posterity.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said Borough, the 16th Day of November, 1759.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, has been presented to His Majesty by Thomas Watson, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild assembled, humbly beg Leave to join the general Voice in congratulating your Majesty on the Success which, by the Blessing of the Almighty, has in so singular a Manner attended your Majesty's Arms, during this memorable Year, in every Part of the Universe, particularly in the signal Victory gained on the Plains of Minden; the Reduction of the Enemies Forts, so long an Annoyance to the British Colonies; and in the most arduous and glorious Conquest of Quebec, the Capital and Source of French Power in North America; Conquests which will for ever distinguish this Year of your Majesty's Reign, as the most glorious Period in the British History.

Permit us, most gracious Sovereign, amidst this general and well founded Joy, to drop one condoling Tear to the Memory of your Majesty's faithful Subject and accomplished General the heroic Wolfe, who had the uncommon and almost peculiar Fate, to Die and Conquer; an Exit, which however afflicting to your Majesty, and his fellow Subjects, is surely most glorious to himself, and such as the Hero would always chuse to make.

While the Enemy are thus stript of their Colonies, dispirited by their Losses, and deprived of their Resources, how vain must be their Hopes from an Invasion of these Kingdoms! should they attempt it, we trust, the wonted Vigour and Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, the intrepid Conduct of your Troops, and the Unanimity of your Subjects, will convince the World, that these Attempts are but the last feeble Efforts of expiring Power, and hasten the grand Object of all your Majesty's Councils and Operations, the Conclusion of this just and necessary

War, by the Restoration of a glorious, safe, and lasting Peace.

Given under our Common Seal, the Sixteenth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and fifty nine.

The two following Addresses have been presented to His Majesty: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The most humble Address of the Magistrates and City Council of Glasgow, in Common Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE the Magistrates and Common Council of the City of Glasgow, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's sacred Person with our most humble and sincere Congratulations on the glorious and unparalleled Success of your Majesty's Arms in every Quarter of the terraqueous Globe, attended with such a Series of Victories and Conquest as cannot be equalled in the Reign of the most prosperous of your Majesty's Royal Predecessors, and will hardly be credited by Posterity.

Your Majesty's Judgment and Prudence in planning, Resolution and Steadiness in causing execute the important Events of this Year, will render your Majesty's auspicious Reign, the most memorable Era in the British Annals. Permit us, at same Time, to acknowledge most humbly your Majesty's paternal Care of the Rights, Liberties, and Possessions of your Subjects, and your wise and happy Conduct in supporting and defending the Protestant Interest, and in maintaining and preserving the Balance of Power in Europe, against the Devices and Attempts of a restless and perfidious neighbouring Kingdom, which for Ages has by its Ambition and Policy disturbed the Quiet and Repose of Mankind.

May Heaven long continue your Majesty's invaluable Life; may this bloody, though necessary War, terminate in a solid, lasting, and honourable Peace, whereby the Protestant Religion may be secured, the Freedom, Independency, and Tranquillity of Europe established, and the Commerce, Liberty and Felicity of your Majesty's Subjects may be fixed and settled on a sure and immoveable Basis to the latest Ages.

Signed in Presence and by Appointment, Glasgow, Nov. 12, 1759. John Mardock, Provost.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the Ministers and Elders of the provincial Synod of Lothian and Tweedale, assembled at Edinburgh, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on that rapid and uninterrupted Success, with which the Almighty has been graciously pleased to bless the Arms of Great Britain.

In every Quarter of the World, your Majesty's Fleets and Armies have been victorious; and the Fields of Minden and Quebec have broke the Power and humbled the Pride of France.

We observe, with the most sincere Pleasure, that the great Events of this Year have not been owing to a superior and overbearing Force; but, under God, to that Spirit of Enterprize which animates your Majesty's Counsels, and to the Skill, Vigour and Courage with which the Plans of Enterprize have been executed.

Permit us, most gracious Sovereign, here to mix Condolance with our Congratulation, and to lament the Loss which both Prince and People suffered, by the Fall of that illustrious Leader of your Armies, who expired in the Arms of Victory; and, dying for his Country, possessed, in his last Moments, every Circumstance of Desert and Glory that can adorn the Fate of mortal Man.

We think ourselves called upon by the present Occasion, to congratulate your Majesty on the happy domestick Consequences of a late Measure of Government, the employing the Inhabitants of the North

North in the Publick Service. We can assure your Majesty, with the greatest Truth, that this well-placed Confidence has killed the Root of Disaffection in that Part of the Kingdom, and united to your Majesty, and to your Royal House, those Hearts, which blind and ancient Prejudice had estranged from both.

We offer constant Prayers, and give Thanks to God, for the encreasing Prosperity of your Majesty's Reign. Never did your Subjects entertain more just and grateful Sentiments of your Majesty's Government. No Discontent is known, no Murmurs are heard, except the Murmurs of Zeal and Loyalty, in the Breasts of the most Faithful. Impatient, while Invasion is threatened, of their own defenceless Condition, and most desirous of being furnished with, and trained to Arms, that they may be enabled, (if Opportunity presents) to give the noblest Proofs of their Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and to the Constitution and Government of their Country.

Signed in Name, in Presence, and by Appointment of the Provincial Synod of Lothian and Tweeddale, by Edinburgh, Nov. Daniel Maguun, Moderator.

The following Address of the Merchants and principal Inhabitants of Great Yarmouth has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Edward Walpole, one of their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Merchants and principal Inhabitants of Great Yarmouth.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects humbly beg Leave to address your Majesty, in the Language of our Hearts, upon the glorious Success of your many wife, just and vigorous Endeavours, to vindicate the Rights of your Crown and People.

We rejoice at all the great Events of this memorable Year, which have struck Terror into the Enemy, and united our Fellow Subjects, more cordially than ever they were united, in Duty, Affection, and Gratitude to their Sovereign,

We particularly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the last signal Victory, which was purchased indeed with the much lamented Death of one gallant General, and the Wounds of another, but was followed by the Surrender of Quebec; and we cannot dissemble the peculiar Pride and Joy of our Country, in being happily connected with the brave Commander, who completed this valuable Conquest.

It was the Glory of a former Reign, to combat and reduce the Power of France, with the Aid of a grand Alliance. It is your Majesty's Glory, to humble the same Power, by the Strength of your own Wisdom, the Fidelity of your Counsellors, and the Bravery of your Forces.

God grant, that we may long deserve and enjoy your Majesty's precious Life, and that there may never be wanting an Heir of your Royal Race, to imitate your Majesty's great Example, in defending the Protestant Religion, protecting the Wealth and Independency of these Islands, and asserting the Liberties of Europe.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, Nov. 24.

The Birth Day of Her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales, is ordered to be kept on Thursday the 6th Day of December next.

Dublin, November 12.

Saturday last being the Anniversary of His Majesty's Birth Day, the Great Guns were fired in His Majesty's Park the Phoenix, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks: At Noon there was a very splendid Appearance of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction, of both Sexes, at the Castle, to compliment his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; and an Ode, set to Musick, was performed upon the Occasion. In the Evening a Play was given by his Grace to the Ladies, after which there was a Ball at the Castle, and the Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Companies of His Majesty's Ship Dower and Peregrine Sloop, who were actually on board at the retaking a Dutch Brigantine called the Rotterdam, on the 27th of July 1757, that they will be paid their respective Shares for the Salvage of the said Recapture, on Monday the 10th of December next, at the Three Kings in Deal; and the Shares not then demanded, will be recalled at the same Place the first Monday in every Month, for three Years to come.

Office for Sick and Wounded Seamen, and for Exchanging Prisoners of War, Nov. 17, 1759.

Whereas Desertions from Parole among the Prisoners of War now admitted thereto in several Parts of the Kingdom, have been, and continue to be very frequent, and whereas there is Reason to believe such Prisoners have met, and do meet with Assistance from some of his Majesty's Subjects and others residing within this Kingdom, some of whom have been prosecuted to Conviction, and Prosecutions are now carrying on against others, and whereas adhering to the King's Enemies by giving them Aid or Comfort, either within his Realm or elsewhere, or the Concealment thereof, are the highest Crimes; the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen, and for Exchanging Prisoners of War, do hereby Promise a reasonable Reward to any Person by whose Means any such Prisoners of War shall be apprehended, or by whose Discovery any of His Majesty's Subjects, or any Person residing within this Realm, shall be convicted of aiding and assisting, directly or indirectly, the said Prisoners of War in their Escapes from Parole, or of proving them to be so aided and assisted, or of affording them, directly or indirectly, or of procuring them to be afforded, Comfort and Harbour in or after such their Desertions from Parole, or by any other Means aiding and assisting them in such Desertions and Escapes; and the said Commissioners do hereby further give Notice, that all and every such Person or Persons so offending against their Allegiance and the Laws of this Kingdom, will be prosecuted as the Law directs.

Victualling Office, Nov. 19, 1759.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Monday the 3d of December next, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as may be willing to undertake to deliver into His Majesty's Stores at Portsmouth and Plymouth, free of all Charge and Risque to His Majesty, Malaga, Port, and Vidonia Canary Wines, for the Service of His Majesty's Navy. The Conditions of the Contract may be seen at the Secretary's Office, at the Victualling Office, London.

East India House, Nov. 21, 1759.

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England, trading to the East Indies, do hereby give Notice,

That a Quarterly General Court of the said Company will be held at their House in Leadenhall-street, on Wednesday the 19th of December next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon; at which it is proposed to take into Consideration the empowering the Court of Directors to build or buy some Ships or Vessels for the Use of the Company. That the Transfer Books of the said Company's Stock will be shut on Thursday the 13th of said December, at Two o'Clock, and opened again on Thursday the 10th of January next.

That the Dividend Warrants on the said Stock due the 5th of January next, will be delivered on Wednesday the 6th Day of February following.

Custom

Custom-House, London, Nov. 23, 1759.

The Receiver General of His Majesty's Customs gives Notice, that he will be ready, on the 3d Day of December next, and the Four following usual Days of Payment, to pay all Out-Port Corn Debentures that shall then be due and payable, without Interest.
