Letter Men and Men at Nine-pence per Day.

And that all Out-Pensioners, who are at a greater Distance than Twenty-five Miles from London (as well those in England, as those in Scotland and Ireland) are required to apply themselves forthwith to one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in the Neighbourhood where they reside, and make Oath, that they are Out-Pensioners belonging to the said Hospital; mentioning in their Certificates, the Regiments to which they did belong, how long they served in the Army, their Age, in what Manner wounded or disabled, their present Place of Abode, reciting the Village or Hamlet, with the Market Town adjacent to it, and that they are no otherwise provided for by the Government; to the Intent, that the Commissioners for the Affairs of the said Hospital may be satisfied that they are the same Persons that have passed their Examinations.

'Tis also required, that the said Certificates be sent by the General Post, directed to the Right Honourable the Pay Master General of His Majesty's Land Forces, at the Horse Guards, London. And that Counterparts, or Duplicates of the said Certificates, be reserved by the Out-Pensioners respectively, in order to be exhibited to such Persons as shall be authorized to pay them their Pensions in Advance, to the Intent, that they may be satisfied that such Out-Pensioners are the very Persons intitled to receive the same.

And it is hereby further notified, that no one will be entred on the Pay Book of the said Hospital, or be thought intitled to the same Pension, that shall neglect making their Appearance, or sending Certificates as above directed.

John Luke Nicoll, Secretary.

Newcastle House, Dec. 21, 1759.

Notice is hereby given in Pursuance of an Act passed in this present Session of Parliament, that His Majesty's Lieutenant and the Deputy-Lieutenants of the County of Middlesex will meet at Mr. Lamb's House in Pall-Mall, upon Tuesday the Eighth Day of January next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, in order to proceed in the Execution of the several Laws relating to the Militia Forces of this Kingdom.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Newcastle House, Dec. 21, 1759.

Whereas an Act hath passed in this present Session of Parliament to enable the Lord Lieutenants of those Counties, where the Militia Forces have not been raised, to summon a Meeting of all such Persons as are qualified and willing to serve as Officers in the Militia, notwithstanding the Suspension made in Pursuance of the former Acts: All Persons therefore who are qualified to serve as Officers in the Militia of the County of Middlesex, and are willing to accept Commissions therein, are desired to meet at Mr. Lamb's House in Pall-Mall, upon Tuesday the 8th Day of January next, in order that every Person, so qualified and willing to accept Commissions, may, at such Meeting, deliver his Name in Writing to His Majesty's Lieutenant, or to such Person as he shall appoint to receive the same, specifying the Rank in which he is willing to serve.

Whereas an Act hath passed in this present Session of Parliament, to enable the Lord Lieutenant of those Counties where the Militia Forces have not been raised, to summon a Meeting of all such Persons as are qualified and willing to serve as Officers in the Militia, notwithstanding the Suspension made in Pursuance of the Directions of the former Acts; All Persons therefore, who are qualified to serve as Officers in the Militia of the Town of Nottingham, and County of the same, and willing to accept Commissions therein, are desired to meet at the Blackmoor's Head, at Nottingham, on Wednesday the 9th Day of January next, in order that every Person so qualified, and willing to accept Commissions, may, at such Meeting, deliver his Name in Writing to His Majesty's Lieutenant, or to such Person as he shall appoint to receive the same, specifying the Rank in which he is willing to serve.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Knightsbridge, Dec. 20, 1759.

Whereas an Act hath passed in this present Session of Parliament to enable His Majesty's Lieutenants of those Counties where the Militia Forces have not been raised, to summon Meetings of all Persons qualified and willing to serve as Officers in the Militia; His Majesty's Lieutenant of the County of Leicester, desires all Persons who are qualified and willing to serve as Officers in the Militia of the said County, to meet at the Three Cranes in Leicester, on Monday the 7th Day of January next, in order that they may deliver in their Names in Writing, specifying the Rank in which they are willing to serve, to His Majesty's Lieutenant, or to such Person as he shall appoint to receive the same.

His Majesty's Lieutenant hopes that the Zeal for carrying this National Measure into Execution at this particularly critical Juncture, so warmly expressed by the High Sheriff and Gentlemen of the Grand Jury at the last Assizes held at Leicester, in a Letter to His Majesty's said Lieutenant, will again manifest itself, now His Majesty's Lieutenant is enabled to carry the said Act into Execution; though he has not hitherto been honoured with any Commands from any of those Gentlemen who had not, previous to that Letter, expressed their Desire of serving as Officers in the said Militia.
