

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday December 22, to Tuesday December 25, 1759.

St. James's, December 25.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Chichester, has been presented to His Majesty, by his Grace the Duke of Richmond: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Chichester.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Chichester, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the many great and signal Successes with which it hath pleased the Almighty to bless your Majesty's Arms in all Parts of the World.

Your Majesty's faithful Citizens will not attempt to enumerate the several great and glorious Victories, which have so peculiarly distinguished this ever memorable Campaign: Victories sufficient in their Number to have signalized even a long continued War, and which in their Consequences have made it impossible for your Enemies to disguise their Weakness, and shewn to all the World, that no Force of theirs is able to obstruct the Progress of your Majesty's Arms, no Difficulties insuperable to the Valour of your victorious Troops. But we should think ourselves inexcusably wanting in our Duty and Gratitude to your Majesty, if we should neglect this Opportunity of approaching your Sacred Person, to join our humble Voice with that of an united Nation, in the warmest and most sincere Acknowledgements of your Majesty's constant and unwearied Endeavours for the Safety, Honour, and true Interest of your People, and of the Wisdom, Vigilance, and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils and Measures, to all which (under God) these great Successes are owing.

The signal and critical Defeat of the French Navy by Sir Edward Hawke, the last great Effort of this glorious Year, will be to us a lasting Subject of Exultation and Thankfulness, as well on account of the Disappointment of all the desperate Attempts and Hopes of our Enemies, as of the Tranquility which is thereby ensured to us at Home; and the pleasing Prospect that this great Event may, perhaps, hasten the Time wherein your Majesty's Wisdom and Paternal Goodness may find it consistent with the Honour and Security of your Subjects and Allies to give a Peace to Europe.

We lament, for the Sake of others, the unavoidable Calamities of War, but have Reason to be most devoutly thankful to God, and to your Majesty, that we ourselves are free from the Distresses of it, and have almost nothing left to wish for, but the long Continuance of your Majesty's Prosperous and Illustrious Reign over an Obedient and Happy People.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be hereunto affixed, the 19th Day of December, in the Thirty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Lord High Steward, Recorder, Bailiffs and Capital Burgesses of Bridport, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon.

the Earl of Coventry, their High Steward: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord High Steward, Recorder, Bailiffs, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Bridport in the County of Dorset.

THE wise and vigorous Measures, by which your Majesty has conducted the present important and most extensive War; the signal Successes of your Majesty's Arms by Sea and Land, in every Quarter of the Globe; the Reduction, we may almost say, the Deprivation of the Power of our most inveterate Enemy the French King; and, lastly, your Majesty's inviting the Olive Branch in the Midst of all your Lawrels, are such evident Proofs of your Majesty's profound Wisdom, unshaken Resolution, and great Humanity, as must fill the Hearts of all your Majesty's Subjects with the utmost Gratitude and Joy; our own, in particular, is inexpressible. Permit us therefore, Royal Sir, most humbly to offer our sincerest Congratulations on these most important and ever memorable Events. May your Majesty's great and good Endeavours, which have been so successfully and so gloriously exerted, for the Security, Honour, and Commerce of these Kingdoms, and for the Preservation of the Protestant Religion, be as effectually employed for the Establishment of a lasting and advantageous Peace. And may the Almighty, who has thus blessed your Majesty's Reign, still vouchsafe to prolong it, and to continue your Crown in your most Illustrious Family to the most distant Ages.

Done at a Common Hall, and given under our Hands, this Fifteenth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and fifty-nine.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of Lanark, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir James Rofs, Bart. being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Burgh of Lanark, in Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects of this ancient and Head Burgh of the County of Lanark, beg Leave, with Hearts full of Joy, to present our most humble and sincere Congratulations on the remarkable Success of your Majesty's Arms by Sea and Land, and to render to your Majesty our hearty Thanks, and grateful Acknowledgements for your extraordinary Care and Vigilance in frustrating the wicked Devices of our Enemies, and securing to us the peaceable Enjoyment of Liberty and Property under your auspicious Reign.

We have the most grateful Sense of the many valuable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild Government, and we are, upon all Occasions, ready to contribute our utmost Endeavours to assist your Majesty in putting in Execution whatever