St. James's, December 29.

THE following Address of the Dean and Clergy of the Island of Guernsey has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord De Lawar, Governor of the said Island: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Dean and Clergy of the Island of Guernsey.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean and Clergy of your Majesty's Island of Guernsey, are too sensible of the uninterrupted Happiness we enjoy under the mild and auspicious Government of the Best of Kings, not to join in the warmest and most sincere Congratulations, on the repeated and signal Successes, which have in every Quarter of the World, by Sea and Land, attended your Majesty's Arms.

From Goree to the last glorious Conquest of Quebec, in every Enterprize, in every Action, as we can trace the surest and unerring Direction of an over-ruling Providence; so we cannot but see and admire your Majesty's Paternal Care of all your Kingdoms, as far as second Causes can operate, in the Management and Conduct of this present War; a War most justly undertaken for the Preservation of the Rights and Liberties of our Fellow-Subjects.

But as by Situation, we are foremost in the Danger of Invasion, and by Profession most exposed to the Resentment of exasperated Papists, we cannot but in an especial Manner congratulate your Majesty on the last decisive Victory over the French Fleet on their own Coast.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall make it our Study to instruct and confirm the People committed to our Charge, in the most steady Principles of Loyalty and Zeal for your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and pray the Great God to crown your Majesty's Labours with a solid and lasting Peace, and make those Blessings perpetual to us and our Posterity, in your Majesty's Royal Line.

Given under the Seal of this Deanry, the 19th Day of December, 1759.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 29th Day of December, 1759.

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Proclamation of the 15th of May last, "For giving Encouragement to Seamen and able bodied Landmen to enter themselves on board His Majesty's Ships of War; for granting Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves; for pardoning such Seamen as have deserted and shall return into the Service; and also for taking up all stragling Seamen," hath been prolonged and extended to the 31st of this Instant December; — And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer—His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His privy Council, hereby Order that the said Time be prolonged and extended from the aforesaid 31st Day of this Instant December, to the 11th Day of February next; and that the Bounties and Rewards given and granted by His Majesty's aforementioned Proclamation, be continued to be paid until the said 11th Day of February next—Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Saville-House, December 27.

This Day Prince Sanseverino Albertini, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of the Two Sicilies, had a private Audience of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

Hague, Dec. 25. We have received certain Accounts here, that the Hereditary Prince of Brunswick, with a very considerable Body of Troops under his Command, arrived at Erfurth on the 18th. It is farther said, That his Serene Highness was to be at Weimar the next Day, on the 20th at Jena, and on the 21st at Gera, where he will be within two Marches of Leipzig, and as many of Hoff and Dresden.

Prince Ferdinand still occupies his Quarters at Krossdorff, and the Blockade of Gießen continues. The Duke de Broglio is still at Friedberg;

By the last Letters from Saxony, dated the 16th Instant, we are informed, That the Grand Prussian Army remained quiet in their Quarters of Cantonment near Willstruff; That the King of Prussia was then at Freyberg, and Marshall Daun at Dresden; and that the Austrian General Beck, who had advanced on the Right Bank of the Elbe towards Torgau, was returned to Dresden, so that there was then no Corps of Austrians on the Right Side of that River.

Of the Book which is upon the foregoing easy shewn by the Multitude of its Editions. It is too late now to tell the Excellence of a Work which has been almost universally read for more than seventy Years, and of which it may perhaps be said with Truth, that no well-disposed Mind ever departed from its Perusal without general Resolutions of a good Life, however some particular Opinions of the Author might be doubted or censured. The Allegory is so happily pursued, and Doctrine so well interwoven with Narrative, that the Book is read with Pleasure even by those to whom Pleasure is the End of Reading; and the Sentiments are so striking, and the Description so just, that the Doctrine is not weakened by the Fiction.
