

Whereas an Act hath passed in this present Session of Parliament, to enable the Lord Lieutenant of those Counties, where the Militia Forces have not been raised, to summon a Meeting of all such Persons as are qualified and willing to serve as Officers in the Militia, notwithstanding the Suspension made in Pursuance of the Directions of the former Acts; All Persons therefore, who are qualified to serve as Officers in the Militia of the County of Nottingham, and willing to accept Commissions therein, are desired to meet at the Swan Inn in Mansfield, on Tuesday the 8th Day of January next, in order that every Person so qualified, and willing, to accept Commissions, may, at such Meeting, deliver his Name in Writing to His Majesty's Lieutenant, or to such Person as he shall appoint to receive the same, specifying the Rank in which he is willing to serve.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Dublin-Castle, Dec. 25, 1759.

Whereas in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in Great Britain this Session, the Lieutenant of every County is required to summon a Meeting, (notwithstanding any Suspension made in pursuance of the Directions of the former Acts) of the Deputy Lieutenants, on the second Tuesday in January next succeeding to the passing the above recited Act; the Deputy Lieutenants of the County of Bedford, are desired to meet at the Swan in Bedford, on Tuesday the 8th Day of January next, and the several Gentlemen who have already accepted Commissions, and any other Gentlemen who may be desirous of accepting the few Commissions still vacant, are desired to attend at the said Meeting, to deliver their Names in writing to the Marquis of Tavistock, whom I have appointed to receive the same, specifying the Rank in which each is willing to serve, and to carry into immediate Execution the several Acts now in force, for the better ordering the Militia Forces in the several Counties of that Part of Great Britain called England.

BEDFORD.

Dublin Castle, Dec. 25, 1759.

To the Deputy Lieutenants of the County of Bedford, Gentlemen,

I having, in pursuance of the Act of Parliament just now passed, for enabling the Lieutenants of the several Counties in England and Wales to proceed in the Execution of the Laws relating to the Militia, appointed a Meeting of the Deputy Lieutenants for the County of Bedford, to be held at Bedford on the 8th of January next, at which, on Account of my necessary Attendance on His Majesty's Service in this Kingdom, I cannot be present, I request the Favour of your personal Appearance at Bedford on that Day, that necessary Measures may be taken, towards carrying the several Acts of Parliament, for the better ordering of the Militia Forces in that Part of Great Britain called England, effectually and expeditiously into Execution. I am, Gentlemen,

Your most obedient humble Servant,

BEDFORD.
