AT the Court at St. James's, the 29th Day of December, 1759,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Proclamation of the 15th of May last, "For giving Encouragement to Seamen and able bodied Landmen to enter themselves on board His Majesty's Ships of War; for granting Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves; for pardoning such Seamen as have deserted and shall return into the Service; and also for taking up all stragling Seamen," hath been prolonged and extended to the 31st of this Instant December; — And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer—His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His privy Council, hereby Order that the said Time be prolonged and extended from the aforesaid 31st Day of this Instant December, to the 11th Day of February next; and that the Bounties and Rewards given and granted by His Majesty's aforementioned Proclamation, be continued to be paid until the said 11th Day of February next—Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Rome, Dec. 15. The Pope's Frigates having been fitted out at Civita Vecchia, put to Sea a few Days ago, to cruize on the Barbary Pirates. They are to call at Marseilles to take in Stores, &c. to rebuild the Frigate St. Peter. The Princes Chigi and Ruspoli are preparing to set out for Vienna, to receive the Order of the Golden Fleece, lately conferred on them by the Emperor.

Florence, Dec. 22. On the 12th Instant, M. Borromei, the late Pope's Nuncio in this City, set out for Rome. He will proceed afterwards to Vienna, at which Court he is to reside in the same Quality. One of the Emperor's Men of War, named the Alerione, commanded by Commodore Acton, failed a few Days ago from Leghorne, to cruize against the Prussian Privateers. Another of the Emperor's Ships, the Eagle, having suffered greatly in a Storm, has, with the utmost Difficulty, got into Siracusa. She has received great Damage, and is so much decayed, that 'tis thought she will never be able to put to Sea again.

Navy Office, January 10, 1760.
