

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday January 19, to Tuesday January 22, 1760.

At the Court at St. James's, the 29th Day of December, 1759,

P R E S E N T,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Proclamation of the 15th of May last, "For giving Encouragement to Seamen and able bodied Landmen to enter themselves on board His Majesty's Ships of War; for granting Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves; for pardoning such Seamen as have deserted and shall return into the Service; and also for taking up all stragling Seamen," hath been prolonged and extended to the 31st of this Instant December; — And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer—His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His privy Council, hereby Order that the said Time be prolonged and extended from the aforesaid 31st Day of this Instant December, to the 11th Day of February next; and that the Bounties and Rewards given and granted by His Majesty's aforementioned Proclamation, be continued to be paid until the said 11th Day of February next—Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Blair.

St. James's, January 22.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Borough of New Windsor has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Vere: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of New Windsor in the County of Berks.

WE beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Hearts overflowing with Joy and Gratitude for the late uncommon Success of your Majesty's Arms, for which we are indebted to the Goodness of Providence, and your Majesty's unwearied Attention to the Interests of this Kingdom. By the Wisdom of the Councils, the Conduct of the Commanders, and the Bravery of the Forces of your Majesty, both by Sea and Land, the Reputation of Great Britain hath been raised to a Degree of Glory unknown in History. It would take up too much Time to enumerate the several Victories your Majesty's Arms have lately obtained, the noblest Repository whereof is in your Majesty's Royal Mind and Heart, and in the grateful Memory of your dutiful and loyal Subjects. We shall only say, that, considering their Nature, Number, and Importance, they will for ever make this Part of your Majesty's Reign, (though before sufficiently happy and blest to your People) the brilliant Period of the British Annals. The Revival of publick Virtue is the peculiar Characteristick of these Times, and doth particular Honour to your Majesty's Government: 'Tis with Pleasure we observe the passionate Regard Men have of late shewn for their Country, and the ardent Love they bear to your Majesty: So that there is nothing now but we may promise ourselves from Affections so general, and so vigorous, under the Direction of your Majesty's Wisdom and Councils. We rejoice to see the Unanimity of our Fellow Subjects for the Service of your Majesty and the common Good; and beg Leave to join in the universal Wish of your Kingdom, that your Majesty may live long to enjoy the Glory your Royal Arms have acquired; and after a great Length of Time hand it down complete with the Blessings of a lasting Peace, to your Majesty's illustrious Family, on the Prosperity of which depends the future Happiness of Great Britain.

Given under our Common Seal in our Council Chamber, this Thirty-first Day of December, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty Nine.

Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters at Marbourg, Jan. 11. Since we were informed of the Success of our Troops in forcing the Town of Dillenburg, and throwing Provisions into the Castle thereof on the 7th, we have received likewise the News, that, on the same Morning, Major Keith's Highlanders, supported by Colonel Luckner's Hussars, who commanded the whole Body, attacked the Village of Eybach, where Beaufremont's Dragoons had an advanced Post, near our Quarters on the Side of Dillenburg, defeated them, and killed and dispersed a great Part of that Regiment, made about 80 Prisoners, and took near 200 Horses with their Baggage. The Highlanders distinguished themselves greatly upon the Occasion. There has likewise been another Affair to our Advantage on the Left of our Army. M. de St. Germain, upon the 8th Instant, advanced on that Side with the Grenadiers of the French Army, supported by some Dragoons and eight Battalions, but was surprized by the Duke of Holstein, at the Head of our Grenadiers with some Prussian Dragoons, and four Battalions in the Neighbourhood of Ebsdorff, and, after a brisk Cannnade, forced to retreat precipitately. In the Pursuit, our Hussars made seven Officers and fifty Men Prisoners. The Enemy has not appeared since.

Hague, Jan. 18. By the last Advices from Saxony, which are of the 2d Instant, we hear, that his Prussian Majesty was himself at Pretschendorff, General Hullen at Frauenstein, and Prince Henry of Prussia remained with the Grand Prussian Army about Willsdorff; but nothing material had then passed in those Quarters.

Admiralty Office, Jan. 19, 1760.

PURsuant to an Act of Parliament passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information hath been sent to this Office by Mr. Robert Hayward, Deputy to Sir Thomas Allin, Bart. that on the 11th and 12th Instant, 144 Casks of Wine, and one Piece of Foreign Brandy, all of them Ullages, and a great many of them damaged by Salt Water, were stranded on the Manours of Sir Thomas Allin, in the Half Hundreds of Mutford, and Lottingland, in the County of Suffolk; all which are in the Custody of the said Sir Thomas and his Deputies; but no Papers, Consignments, or Quality, are known,

J. Cleveland.