Published by Authority.

From Saturday March 1, to Tuesday March 4, 1760.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 1st Day of February, 1760,

P R E S E N T,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Proclamation of the 15th of May last, "For giving Encouragement to Seamen and able bodied Landmen to enter themselves on board His Majesty's Ships of War; for granting Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves; for pardoning such Seamen as have deserted and shall return into the Service; and also for taking up all stragling Seamen," hath been prolonged and extended to the 11th of this Instant February; — And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer—His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His privy Council, hereby Order, that the said Time be prolonged and extended from the aforesaid 11th Day of this Instant February, to the 24th Day of March next; and that the Bounties and Rewards given and granted by His Majesty's aforementioned Proclamation, be continued to be paid until the said 24th Day of March next. — Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

William Sharpe.

Rome, Feb. 9. Last Week the Treasurer to the Charitable Corporation in this City, made his Escape from hence; and has embezzled Jewels, Cash, &c. to the Amount of 100,000 Crowns.

Venice, February 15. A few Days ago Marquis Durfort, the French Ambassador here, set out for Naples to reside in the same Character at that Court.

Florence, Feb. 16. On the 12th Instant, a Detachment out of the First and Second Tuscan Regiments in Garrison at Leghorn, arrived here from that City, who, jointly with a Draft of Men of the Third Regiment in this Garrison, consisting of about 400, set out on the 15th for the Army in Germany, to fill up the Vacancies in the Tuscan Troops that are in the Queen's Service.

Whitehall Treasury Chambers, February 23, 1760.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having by Virtue of the Power given unto them by an Act of Parliament lately passed for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain for the Service of the Year 1760, directed Exchequer Bills to be made forth for several Sums payable in Course on the Credit of the said Land Tax Act, which said Bills are to bear Interest at the Rate of Two-pence by the Day for every 100l. and are to pass and be current in all Revenues, Aids, Taxes, and Supplies whatsoever, and at the Receipt of Exchequer, according to the said Act.

And whereas all and every Receivers and Collectors in Great Britain, of the Customs, Excise, or any Revenue, Aid, Tax, or Supply whatsoever already granted, due or payable, or which shall or may hereafter be granted, due or payable to His Majesty, his Heirs, and Successors, are by the said Act directed and required out of any current coined Money as shall then be in his or their Hands, of such Revenue, Aid, Tax, or Supply, to pay such of the same Bills as shall be brought to them respectively, by any Person or Persons desiring to have Money for the same, under the Penalties in the said Act prescribed: The said Lords Commissioners do hereby give Notice to, and command and strictly charge and require, all and every such Receivers and Collectors, that they do observe and comply with the Directions of the said Act, in respect of the said Exchequer Bills.

Admiralty-Office, February 23, 1760.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in pursuance of a late Act of Parliament, intituled, An Act to explain and amend an Act made in the Twenty-ninth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Seamen, and the more speedy and effectual manning His Majesty's Navy; and for the better Prevention of Piracies and Robberies by Crews of private Ships of War, a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the Trial of Offences committed on the High Seas, within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held on Friday the Twenty-eighth Day of March next, at Justice Hall in the Old Bailey, London, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning.

Notice is also hereby given, that for the future an Admiralty Session will be held in the several Months March and October in every Year, pursuant to the Directions of the said Act of Parliament.

Pb. Stephens.

Whitehall, February 23, 1760.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that the three following Robberies have been lately committed, viz.

First, That the Dwelling House of William Black, Esq; in New Broad Street, London, was broke into between Five and Six o'Clock on Sunday Morning, the 10th Instant, and robbed of the following Plate, 3 Salvers, 1 Milk Pot, 1 Boat, 6 Small Spoons, 1 Coffee Pot,

[Price Three-Pence.]

Pot, 2 Salts, 2 Showels, 1 Pair of Tongues, 1 Candlestick, 1 Tea Kettle, 1 Stand with 3 Castors, 1 Pair of large Candlesticks, and several other Things unknown.

Second, That the Dwelling House of Joshua Sugden, at the King's Arms, in New Broad Street Passage, leading to Bishopsgate, Publican, was, early on Friday Morning, the 15th Instant, broke into, and a Scrutore broke open, and the following Sums of Money stolen thereout, 90 Guineas, in a Harden Bag, 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ lay loose, 4 Guineas in half Guineas, 6 Crown Pieces, viz. 2 King William's, 2 King James's, and 2 Queen Anne's, and about 6 Pounds in Silver loose, the Property of the said Joshua Sugden.

And the Third, That sundry wicked and evil disposed Persons did, on Monday last, the 18th Instant, find Means to get into the House of Samuel Lloyd, of Devonshire Square, Merchant, and a little after Three o'Clock in the Morning, one of them, with a Vizard Mask on, did enter the Chamber of the said Samuel Lloyd, habited like a Sailor, with a Pistol tuck'd in the Waistband of his Trouzers; a Dark Lanthorn in his Right Hand, and a broad Blade Butcher's Knife in his Left, came to his Bed Side, and, in a menacing low Tone, demanded the said Samuel Lloyd to give him All his Money, ordering him, at the same Time not to speak loud, or make a Noise, or else would cut his Throat; and when he was told where the Cash was, demanded the Key of the Compting House, and also whether the Cash was in a Drawer, Bag, or Purse,—and after receiving said Keys gave them, (as the said Samuel Lloyd supposes,) to some of his Accomplices, while he stood Centinel at said Chamber-Door, and who, thro' either not knowing how to use said Keys, or being in Hast, broke open the Door of the Compting-House, and also wrench'd open two Desks therein, and took out from thence to the Value of about 150 l. in Specie; among which were about fifty Shillings in Crown and Half-Crown Pieces, and the rest chiefly in Guineas, except some few Portugal Pieces.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in all, or either of the said Robberies, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one concerned in all, or either of the said Robberies, who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. PITT.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said William Black, of New Broad street, does hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Person, who shall discover his, or her Accomplice or Accomplices, who broke into, and robbed his House as aforesaid, to be paid upon the lawful Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

William Black.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Samuel Lloyd, of Devonshire Square, does hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Person or Persons, who shall give any Information relating to the said Robbery, (committed in his House) so that the Person or Persons concerned therein may be lawfully convicted.

Samuel Lloyd.

And, as a still further Encouragement, the Ward of Bishopsgate Without do promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to be paid by the Deputy of the said Ward, to any Person or Persons, who shall make any Discovery, so as to convict the Perpetrators of the above three Robberies, or a proportionable Part for either of the said Robberies that shall be discovered.

Uppington Bracee, Deputy.

Salop, February 3, 1760.

Whereas an Act hath passed in this present Session of Parliament to enable the Lord Lieutenant of those Counties, where the Militia Forces have not been raised, to summon a Meeting of all such Persons as are qualified and willing to serve as Officers in the Militia, notwithstanding the Suspension made in Pursuance of the Directions of the former Acts: And whereas at the Meeting of his Majesty's Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants of the County of Salop, this Day held at the Talbot Inn in this Town, a sufficient Number of Gentlemen, qualified to serve as Officers in the Militia of the said County, did not appear, or give in their Names, in Writing for that Purpose; In order therefore that the Militia Acts may the more effectually be carried into Execution, his Majesty's said Lieutenant doth hereby give Notice, That another Meeting will be held at the Place aforesaid, on Tuesday the 11th Day of March next; and likewise desires, that all Persons qualified to serve as Officers, and willing to accept Commissions, will attend the said Meeting, or deliver, or cause to be delivered, their Names in Writing to His Majesty's said Lieutenant, or such Person as he shall appoint to receive the same, specifying the Rank in which they are willing to serve.

POWIS.

George Inn, Northampton, Feb. 26, 1760.

Whereas at the Meeting held here this Day by the Lord Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants, pursuant to the several Acts for the better Ordering of the Militia Forces, and pursuant to Notice in the London Gazette and Northampton Mercury for that Purpose, other Gentlemen made a further Entry of their Names to serve as Officers in the said Militia for this County; but the List of Officers not being yet full, His Majesty's said Lieutenant doth hereby give Notice, that another Meeting will be held at this Place on Saturday the 15th Day of March next, when and where it is hoped the said Lists will be completed, and that the said Acts may be immediately carried into Execution: And all Gentlemen, who are or shall be willing to fill up the present Vacancies of Officers, are desired to enter or send in their Names to the said Lord Lieutenant, or to such other Person or Persons who shall be then and there authorised to receive the same. And all Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace of the said County are particularly desired to meet the said Lord Lieutenant, at the said George Inn, on Tuesday the 15th Day of April, being the first Day of next Easter Sessions to be holden for this County, in order to subdivide themselves, and carry the said Militia Law into immediate Execution in the several Subdivisions of the said County.

DUNK HALIFAX.

ROGERS,

Clerk of the General Meetings.

General Post Office, February 9, 1760.

Whereas the Post Boy carrying the Portsmouth Mail from this Office, was, this Morning, between Two and Three of the Clock, near Kensington Gravel Pits, attacked and robbed by a single Highwayman, who took out of the said Mail and carried off the Portsmouth Bag of Letters.

The Person who committed this Robbery is said to be about 5 Feet 8 or 9 Inches high, a slender middle aged Man, had on a blue Surtout Coat, and was mounted upon a large strong Brown Gelding, upwards of 15 Hands high.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended, and convicted, convicted, the Person who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; or if any Person or Persons, whether an Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery, whereby the Person who committed the same may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer, or Discoverers, will, upon Conviction of the Party, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Postmaster General.

George Shelvocke, Secretary.

N. B. All Persons who may have sent any Notes or Drafts to Portsmouth by this Mail, are desired to give immediate Notice thereof to this Office, or to advertise the same in the Publick Papers, which may prevent such Notes or Drafts being disposed of.
