AT the Court at St. James's, the 1st Day of February, 1760,

P R E S E N T,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Proclamation of the 15th of May last, "For giving Encouragement to Seamen and able bodied Landmen to enter themselves on board His Majesty's Ships of War; for granting Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves; for pardoning such Seamen as have deserted and shall return into the Service; and also for taking up all stragling Seamen," hath been prolonged and extended to the 11th of this Instant February; — And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer—His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His privy Council; hereby Order, that the said Time be prolonged and extended from the aforesaid 11th. Day of this Instant February, to the 24th Day of March next; and that the Bounties and Rewards given and granted by His Majesty's aforementioned Proclamation, be continued to be paid until the said 24th Day of March next. — Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

William. Sharpe.

Whitehall, March 11.

His Grace the Duke of Bedford, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has transmitted to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, a Plan of the Attack and Defence of Carrickfergus, taken upon the Spot by Captain Vallancey, of the 10th Regiment of Foot, by which it appears, that every Thing was done by Lieutenant Colonel Jennings, that was possible for such a small Handful of Men to do, in a Place so little defensible as Carrickfergus was, when it was attacked.

Admiralty-Office, February 23, 1760.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in pursuance of a late Act of Parliament, intituled, An Act to explain and amend an Act made in the Twentieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Seamen, and the more speedy and effectual manning His Majesty's Navy; and for the better Prevention of Piracies and Robberies by Crews of private Ships of War, a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the Trial of Offences committed on the High Seas, within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held on Friday the Twenty-eighth Day of March next, at Justice Hall in the Old Bailey, London, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning.

[Price Three-Pence.]

Notice is also hereby given, that for the future an Admiralty Session will be held in the several Months of March and October in every Year, pursuant to the Directions of the said Act of Parliament.
