AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 20th Day of March, 1760,

P R E S E N T,

The Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Proclamation of the 15th of May last, "For giving Encouragement to Seamen and able bodied Landmen to enter themselves on board His Majesty's Ships of War; for granting Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves; for pardoning such Seamen as have deserted and shall return into the Service; and also for taking up all stragling Seamen," hath been prolonged and extended to the 24th of this Instant March; — And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer—It is therefore hereby ordered in Council, that the said Time be prolonged and extended from the aforesaid 24th Day of this Instant March, to the 20th Day of May next; and that the Bounties and Rewards given and granted by His Majesty's aforementioned Proclamation, be continued to be paid until the said 10th Day of May next. — Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

William Sharpe.

Magdebourg, March 25. Letters from Silesia bring the following Account of what has passed lately in those Parts. Lieut. Gen. Baron Goltze having received Intelligence of General Laudohn's assembling his Troops, and of the Enemy's Cavalry and Infantry having moved from behind the Oppa towards Hotzenplotz and Johanisthal, recalled all his Detachments, and began his March towards Neils on the 15th Instant, with his whole Force. In the mean Time General Laudohn, who had set out from his Quarters on the 14th with Palfy's Regiment of Cuirassiers, Lowenstein's Dragoons, 500 Hussars of Nadasti, 500 of Kalnocki, 2000 Croats, and 14 Companies of Grenadiers, marched all Night with a View to surprize our Troops at Neustadt. The latter were scarce out of the Gates, when they were surrounded by those of the Enemy. General Jacquemin was posted with the Regiment of Lowenstein near Buchelsdorff on the Road to Steinau, General Laudohn followed with the Regiment of Palfy and 2000 Croats, supported by 14 Companies of Grenadiers; a thousand of their Hussars were upon our right Flank, the advanced Guard of which consisted of 100 Men under Capt. Blumenthal of the Regiment of Manteuffel. Capt. Zitzwitz commanded the Rear Guard, consisting of the same Number; and the rest of the aforesaid Regiment, with a Squadron of Dragoons of Bareith under Capt. Chambaud, followed with the Baggage. General Lauhohn summoned our Troops twice, by Sound of Trumpet, to lay down their Arms; which they not complying with, he ordered all his Cavalry to advance: Whereupon General Jacquemin fell upon the advanced Guard, while General Laudohn himself attacked the Rear, and the Hussars, in Platoons, flanked the Baggage. The Captains Blumenthal and Zitzwitz formed their small Force in a Kind of Square, from whence they kept a continual Fire. The Enemy's Cavalry nevertheless advanced six Times on a Gallop, to within ten Paces of our Troops; but perceiving many fall on their Side, among whom were several Officers, they retreated in great Disorder. Afterwards the Croats having taken Possession of a Wood, between Siebenhausen and Steinau, through which the Roads were very bad, and by the Rains rendered almost impassable for Carriages, there attacked our Troops on all Sides. Unfortunately a Waggon broke down there in a Defile, and as our People did not think proper to stay to repair it, they were obliged to abandon all that were behind it; and five covered Waggons laden with Baggage, and 18 Carts with Meal and Oats, fell into the Hands of the Enemy, who harrassed our Troops as far as Steinau, and were constantly engag'd with our Rear Guard. The Loss of the Austrians however greatly exceeds ours; they buried above 300 Men, in different Places, and sent 500 Wounded to Neustadt. Besides which we have taken 25 Prisoners, amongst whom are several Officers. We had 35 Men killed, and four Officers and 69 private Men wounded, in Manteuffel's Regiment, as also one Lieutenant, with three Dragoons in Bareith's. The Enemy made a Subaltern Officer, two Drummers, and 35 private Men Prisoners; so that our Loss, in the Whole, including the Missing, amounts to about 170 Men; which is not much, considering the great Superiority of the Enemy. The Officers, taken Prisoners, by our Troops, commend highly the Bravery of the Regiment of Manteuffel upon this Occasion. Subsequent Letters bring Advice, that on the 17th, at Break of Day, the Austrians had abandoned the City of Neustadt; and that General Laudohn had retired to Jagernsdorff with the 14 Companies of Grenadiers under his Command; and that the Austrian Cavalry were marched to Freywalde. The same Letters add, that the Austrians had lost 28 Officers in this Action, and that the Number of Dead and Wounded amounted to 1000 Men. The Regiment of Lowenstein (Cavalry) must have suffered greatly.

An Account has likewise been received here, that a considerable Body of Troops from the Army of the Empire, under the Orders of General Luckinski, who had with him a Train of Artillery of 15 Pieces, had approached the Village of Zeitz in the Night between the 16th and 17th Instant, and attacked two Squadrons of the Regiment of Carabniers, and taken Prisoners 8 Officers and about 100 Troopers; but that the Enemy retiring from that Post immediately after, the Prussian General Solomon, with the Free Battalion under his Command, had retaken them.

Whitehall,

Whitehall, March 28, 1760.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, on the Second Day of this Instant March, several Houses, in and near Lad Lane, London, were burnt down, by a sudden Fire, and that there is good Cause to suspect that one of the said Houses was set on Fire wilfully, by some wicked or malicious Persons;—His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned therein, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, except the Owner or Occupier of the House where the Fire began, who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLDERNESSE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Governor and Company of the Royal Exchange Assurance, do, hereby, promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Person who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice or Accomplices concerned in setting Fire to any of the said Houses, except the Owner or Occupier of the House where the Fire began, to be paid, at their Office, on the Royal Exchange, upon the lawful Conviction of any one, or more, of the Offenders.

John Rayner, Solicitor for the Royal Exchange Assurance.

Whitehall, March 29, 1760.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that the House of the Reverend Mr. William Richardson, at Milton, in the Parish of West Markham, in the County of Nottingham, has for three Months last past been infested, in the Night, twice or thrice in a Week, by Persons supposed to have evil Designs; and that, on Wednesday the 20th of February last, a Letter was found, stuck upon the Outside of one of the Windows of the said House, containing the Words and Figures following, viz.

“ Sur—the 1st. thing I order You to do is send “ Whoeme Yar wacheng devil 2. tac all furs and

“ Houfe or out or beds We are Yar Eneimis
“ For Ricifon of Milton.”

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in Writing the said Letter, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, except the Person who actually wrote the same, who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLDERNESSE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Reverend William Richardson, of Milton, aforesaid, does, hereby, promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid; to be paid by him, upon the Conviction of one or more of the said Offenders.

William Richardson.

Salop, March 11, 1760.

Whereas an Act hath passed in this present Session of Parliament, to enable the Lord Lieutenant of those Counties where the Militia Forces have not been raised, to summon a Meeting of all such Persons as are qualified and willing to serve as Officers in the Militia, notwithstanding the Suspension made in Pursuance of the Directions of the former Acts: And whereas at the Meeting of His Majesty's Lieutenant, and Deputy Lieutenants of the County of Salop, this Day held at the Talbot Inn in this Town, a sufficient Number of Gentlemen qualified to serve as Officers in the Militia, for the said County, did not appear, or give in their Names in Writing for that Purpose; in order therefore that the Militia Acts may the more effectually be carried into Execution, His Majesty's said Lieutenant doth hereby give Notice, that another Meeting will be held at the Place aforesaid, on Friday the 11th Day of April next; and likewise desires that all Persons qualified to serve as Officers, and willing to accept Commissions, will attend the said Meeting, or deliver, or cause to be delivered, their Names in Writing to His Majesty's said Lieutenant, or such Person as he shall appoint to receive the same, specifying the Rank in which they are willing to serve.

POWIS.

Downing-street, April 2, 1760.

The Tryal of Lord Ferrers, which is appointed for the 16th Instant, obliges me to Order the Militia Meeting advertised to be held for the County of Northampton on the preceding Day, to be adjourned to Monday the 28th of the same Month of April, when the said Meeting will be held at the George Inn in Northampton, of which all Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace who were invited to the said intended Meeting of the 15th are desired to take Notice, and are particularly intreated to be at the Meeting of the 28th: And all Chief Constables within the said County are to take Notice of the said Adjournment, and are also required to be at the said intended Meeting of the 28th Instant.

DUNK HALIFAX.

Saville-street, London, April 5, 1760.

Whereas an Act hath passed in this present Session of Parliament, to enable the Lord Lieutenant of those Counties and Places where the Militia Forces have not been raised, to summon a Meeting of all such Persons as are qualified and willing to serve as Officers in the Militia, notwithstanding the Suspension made in pursuance of the Directions of the former Acts; all Persons therefore who are qualified to serve as Officers in the Militia of the Isle of Wight in the County of Southampton, and willing to accept Commissions therein, are desired to meet at the Bugle Inn in Newport in the said Isle, on Tuesday the 6th Day of May next, in order that every Person so qualified, and willing to accept Commissions, may, at such Meeting, deliver his Name in Writing to his Majesty's Governor of the said Island, or to such Person as he shall appoint to receive the same, specifying the Rank in which he is willing to serve.

PORTSMOUTH.

Dr. ANDERSON'S, of
The Famous SCOTS PILLS;

ARE faithfully prepared only by JAMES INGLIS, Son of DAVID INGLISH, deceased, at the Unicorn, over-against the New Church in the Strand, London; and to prevent Counterfeits from Scotland, as well as in and about London, you are desired to take Notice, That the true Pills have their Boxes sealed on the Top (in black Wax) with a Lyon Rampant, and Three Mulletts Argent, Dr. Anderson's Head entwint I. I. with his Name round it, and Isabella English underneath the Shield in a Scroll. They are of excellent Use in all Cases where Purging is necessary, and may be taken with Epsom, Tunbridge, or other Medicinal Waters.

DR. JAMES'S Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY'S ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurifies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; it is extremely effectual in the Small Pox, Measles, and St. Anthony's Fire; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, London; and by Mrs. Smart, at Mr. M'Mahon's, in Caple street, Dublin; at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Places above-mentioned. Price 6 d.
