AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 20th Day of March, 1760,

P R E S E N T,

The Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Proclamation of the 15th of May last, "For giving Encouragement to Seamen and able bodied Landmen to enter themselves on board His Majesty's Ships of War; for granting Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves; for pardoning such Seamen as have deserted and shall return into the Service; and also for taking up all stragling Seamen," hath been prolonged and extended to the 24th of this Instant March; — And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer—It is therefore hereby ordered in Council, that the said Time be prolonged and extended from the aforesaid 24th Day of this Instant March, to the 10th Day of May next; and that the Bounties and Rewards given and granted by His Majesty's aforementioned Proclamation, be continued to be paid until the said 10th Day of May next. — Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

William Sharpe.

Whitehall, March 28, 1760.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, on the Second Day of this Instant March, several Houses, in and near Lad Lane, London, were burnt down, by a sudden Fire, and that there is good Cause to suspect that one of the said Houses was set on Fire wilfully, by some wicked or malicious Persons; — His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned therein, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, except the Owner or Occupier of the House where the Fire began, who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLDERNESSE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Governor and Company of the Royal Exchange Assurance, do, hereby, promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Person who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice or Accomplices concerned in setting Fire to any of the said Houses, except the Owner or Occupier of the House where the Fire began, to be paid, at their Office, on the Royal Exchange, upon the lawful Conviction of any one, or more, of the Offenders.

John Rayner, Solicitor for the Royal Exchange Assurance.

Whitehall, March 29, 1760.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that the House of the Reverend Mr. William Richardson, at Milton, in the Parish of West Markham, in the County of Nottingham, has for three Months last past been infested, in the Night, twice or thrice in a Week, by Persons supposed to have evil Designs; and that, on Wednesday the 20th of February last, a Letter was found, stuck upon the Outside of one of the Windows of the said House, containing the Words and Figures following, viz.

" Sur—the 1st. thing I order You to do is send
 " Whoeme Yar wacheng devil 2. tac all furs and
 " traps away 3. houere kew as You col it wen
