IT is thought proper to undeceive the Public by declaring, that the Proceedings of the General Court Martial upon the Trial of Lord George Sackville, published under this Title, 'The Trial of the Right Hon. the Lord GEORGE SACKVILLE, at a Court-Martial held at the Horse Guards, Feb. 29, 1760, for an Enquiry into his Conduct; being charged with Disobedience of Orders, while he commanded the British Horse in Germany, together with his Lordship's Defence,' are without the Authority, Consent, or Privity of the Court, and in many Respects imperfect and erroneous; especially in the occasional Observations represented to have been made by particular Members of the Court (by Name) and by the Judge Advocate; which, as they are no Part of the Proceedings reported to his Majesty, it has never been usual at Courts Martial to reduce into Writing.
