PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty was graciously pleased, by Her Royal Proclamation, eight hundred and fifty-nine, to promise and declare that the Bounties of Ten Pounds for every Able Scaman, and Five Pounds for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for Her Majesty's Service, should be paid, in the manner thereby directed,

to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the age of forty-five, nor under the age of twenty years, who should, on or before the fifteenth day of June then following, enter themselves to serve in Her Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of Her Majesty's Ships, or Officers employed in Tenders, or at Rendezvous on shore for raising men for the service of the Royal Navy: and whereas Her Majesty was also graciously pleased, by Her said Proclamation, to declare that all Able-bodied Landsmen, not above the age of twenty-five, nor under the age of twenty years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the sum of Forty Shillings each man as Her Majesty's Royal Bounty;

And whereas the time limited for Payment of the said Bounties, so far as they relate to Able Seamen and Ordinary Seamen, was, by Order in Council of the eleventh day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, prolonged and extended from the said fifteenth day of June to the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine; and whereas by certain other Orders in Council the said Bounties to Able and Ordinary Seamen were reduced to Eight Pounds and Four Pounds, to Six Pounds and Three Pounds, and lastly to Four Pounds and Two Pounds, respectively, and the time limited for the payment of the said last-mentioned Bounties was on CONVENTION between Her Majesty and the King of Sardinia, for the Establishment of International Copyright.

Signed at Turin, November 30, 1860.

[Ratifications exchanged at Turin, January 4, 1861.]

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the King of Sardinia, being equally desirous of extending in each country the enjoyment of copyright to works of literature and of the fine arts which may be first published in the other; Her Britannic Majesty and His Sardinian Majesty have deemed it expedient to conclude a special Convention for that purpose, and have therefore named as their Plenipotentiaries, that is to say:—

Her Britannic Majesty, Sir James Hudson, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath of England, Her Britannic Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of His Majesty the King of Sardinia;

And His Majesty the King of Sardinia, the Chevalier Constantine Nigra, Commander of His Religious and Military Order of Saint Maurice and Saint Lazarus, &c., His Minister Resident, &c.;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles:—

ARTICLE I.

From and after the date on which, according to the provisions of Article XIV, the present Convention shall come into operation, the authors of works of literature or of art, to whom the laws of either of the two countries do now or may hereafter give the right of property, or copyright, shall be entitled to exercise that right in the territories of the other of such countries for the same term, and to the same extent, as the authors of works of the same nature, if published in such other country, would therein be entitled to exercise such right; so that the re-publication or piracy, in either country, of any work of literature or of art

SUA Maestà il Re di Sardegna e Sua Maestà la Regina del Regno Unito della Gran Bretagna e d'Irlanda, ugualmente animati dal desiderio di estendere nei due Stati il godimento del diritto di autore sulle opere letterarie ed artistiche che saranno pubblicate per la prima volta nell'uno di essi, hanno ravvisato conveniente di concludere a tal fine una speciale Convenzione, ed hanno perciò nominato a loro Plenipotenziarii, cioè:—

Sua Maestà il Re di Sardegna, il Cavaliere Costantino Nigra, Commendatore del Suo Ordine Religioso e Militare dei Santi Maurizio e Lazzaro, &c., Suo Ministro Residente, &c.;

E Sua Maestà la Regina del Regno Unito della Gran Bretagna ed Irlanda, Sir James Hudson, Commendatore dell'Onorevolissimo Ordine del Bagno d'Inghilterra, Inviato Straordinario e Ministro Plenipotenziario di Sua Maestà Britannica presso la Corte di Sua Maestà il Re di Sardegna;

I quali, dopo aversi comunicato scambievolmente i loro rispettivi plenipoteri, riconosciuti in buona e debita forma, convennero nella stipulazione degli Articoli seguenti:

ARTICOLO I.

Dal giorno in cui, conforme al disposto dell'Articolo XIV, la presente Convenzione diventerà esecutoria, gli autori di opere letterarie o artistiche, ai quali le leggi dell'uno dei due Stati guarentiscono attualmente o guarentiranno per l'avvenire il diritto di proprietà o d'autore, avranno facoltà di esercitare esso diritto nei domini dell'altro durante lo stesso spazio di tempo e negli stessi limiti in cui si eserciterebbe in quest'altro Stato il diritto conferito agli autori di opere della stessa natura le quali vi fossero pubblicate: in guisa che la riproduzione o la contraffazione nell'uno dei due Stati di qualsivoglia opera letteraria published in the other, shall be dealt with in the same manner as the re-publication or piracy of a work of the same nature first published in such other country; and so that authors in the one country shall have the same remedies before the courts of justice in the other country, and shall enjoy in that other country the same protection against piracy and unauthorized re-publication, as the law now does, or may hereafter, grant to authors in that country.

The terms "works of literature or of art," employed at the beginning of this Article, shall be understood to comprise publications of books, of dramatic works, of musical compositions, of drawing, of painting, of sculpture, of engraving, of lithography, and of any other works whatsoever of literature and of the fine arts.

The lawful representatives or assigns of authors translators, composers, painters, sculptors, or engravers, shall, in all respects, enjoy the same rights which, by the present Convention, are granted to the authors, translators, composers, painters, sculptors, or engravers themselves.

ARTICLE II.

The protection granted to original works is extended to translations; it being, however, clearly understood that the intention of the present Article is simply to protect a translator in respect of his own translation, and that it is not intended to confer upon the first translator of any work the exclusive right of translating that work, except in the case and to the extent provided for in the following Article.

ARTICLE III.

The author of any work published in either of the two countries, who may choose to reserve the right of translating it, shall, until the expiration of five years from the date of the first publication of the translation thereof authorized by him, be, in the following cases, entitled to protection from the publication in the other country of any translation of such work not so authorized by him:—

1. If the original work shall have been registered and deposited in the one country within three months after its first publication in the other;
2. If the author has notified on the title-page of his work his intention to reserve the right of translating it;
3. Provided always, that at least a part of the authorized translation shall have appeared within a year after the registration and deposit of the original, and that the whole shall have been published within three years after the date of such deposit;
4. And provided that the publication of the translation shall take place within one of the two countries, and that it shall be registered and deposited according to the provisions of Article VIII.

With regard to works published in parts, it will be sufficient if the declaration of the author that he reserves the right of translation shall appear in the first part. But with reference to the period of five years limited by this Article for the exercise of the exclusive right of translation, each part shall be treated as a separate work, and each part shall be registered and deposited in the one country within three months after its first publication in the other.

od artistica pubblicata nell' altro, sarà trattata nella stessa maniera in cui si tratterebbe la riproduzione o la contraffazione d'un opera d'egual natura pubblicata per la prima volta nell' altro Stato; e gli autori dell' uno dei due Stati avranno innanzi ai tribunale dell' altro la stessa azione, e vi godranno, quanto alla contraffazione ed alla riproduzione non autorizzata, la stessa guarentigia che la legge concede o potrebbe concedere agli autori di questo medesimo Stato.

E inteso che le parole "opere letterarie o artistiche," adoperate in principio di quest' Articolo, comprendono le pubblicazioni di libri, di opere drammatiche, di componimenti musicali, di disegni, di pitture, di sculture, d'incisioni, di lithografie, e di qualunque altra produzione di letteratura o di belle arti.

I legali rappresentanti o aventi causa degli autori, traduttori, compositori, pittori, scultori, o incisori godranno, per ogni rispetto, dei medesimi diritti, che la presente Convenzione conferisce agli stessi autori, traduttori, compositori, pittori, scultori, o incisori.

ARTICOLO II.

La protezione concessa alle opere originali si estende pure alle traduzioni. Tuttavia rimane inteso che il presente Articolo ha per oggetto di proteggere il traduttore solamente riguardo alla sua propria traduzione, e non già di conferire il diritto esclusivo di traduzione al primo traduttore d'un opera qualunque, fuorchè nel caso e nei limiti previsti dall' Articolo seguente.

ARTICOLO III.

L'autore d'un opera qualunque pubblicata nell' uno dei due Stati, il quale avrà voluto riserbare il suo diritto di traduzione, godrà, durante cinque anni dalla data della prima pubblicazione della traduzione della propria opera da lui autorizzata, del privilegio di protezione contro la pubblicazione nell' altro Stato di ogni traduzione dell' opera stessa non autorizzata da lui, e ciò sotto le condizioni seguente:—

1. L'opera originale sarà registrata e depositata nell' uno dei due Stati nel termine di tre mesi dalla sua prima pubblicazione nell' altro;
2. L'autore dovrà indicare nel titolo dell' opera sua l'intenzione di riserbarsi il diritto di traduzione;
3. La detta traduzione autorizzata dovrà essere pubblicata, almeno in parte, nel termine di un anno dalla data della registrazione e del deposito dell' originale, e in totalità nel termine di tre anni dalla data del fatto depositato;
4. La traduzione dovrà essere pubblicata nell' uno dei due Stati, ed essere registrata e depositata in conformità delle disposizioni dell' Articolo VIII.

Rispetto alle opere pubblicate per dispense, basterà che la dichiarazione dell' autore che intende riserbarsi il diritto di traduzione sia fatta nella prima dispensa. Cionondimeno, riguardo al periodo di cinque anni fissato da quest' Articolo per l'esercizio del diritto esclusivo di traduzione, ciascuna dispensa sarà considerata come un' opera separata, e dovrà essere registrata e depositata nell' uno dei due Stati nei tre mesi dalla sua prima pubblicazione nell' altro.

ARTICLE IV.

The stipulations of the preceding Articles shall also be applicable to the representation of dramatic works, and to the performance of musical compositions, in as far as the laws of each of the two countries are or shall be applicable in this respect to dramatic and musical works first publicly represented or performed therein.

In order, however, to entitle the author to legal protection in regard to the translation of a dramatic work, such translation must appear within three months after the registration and deposit of the original.

It is understood that the protection stipulated by the present Article is not intended to prohibit fair imitations, or adaptations of dramatic works to the stage of the respective countries, but is only meant to prevent piratical translations.

The question whether a work is an imitation or a piracy, shall in all cases be decided by the courts of justice of the respective countries, according to the laws in force in each.

ARTICLE V.

Notwithstanding the stipulations of Articles I and II of the present Convention, articles extracted from newspapers or periodicals published in either of the two countries may be re-published or translated in the newspapers or periodicals of the other country, provided the source from whence such articles are taken be acknowledged.

Nevertheless, this permission shall not be construed to authorize the re-publication in one of the two countries, of articles other than those of political discussion, from newspapers or periodicals published in the other country, the authors of which shall have notified in a conspicuous manner in the journal or periodical in which such articles have appeared, that they forbid the republication thereof.

ARTICLE VI.

The importation into and the sale in either of the two countries of piratical copies of works which are protected from piracy under Articles I, II, III, and V of the present Convention, are prohibited, whether such piratical copies originate in the country where the work was published, or in any other country.

ARTICLE VII.

In the event of an infraction of the provisions of the foregoing Articles, the pirated works or articles shall be seized and destroyed; and the persons who may have committed such infractions shall be liable in each country to the penalties and actions which are or may be prescribed by the laws of that country for such offences, committed in respect of a work or production of home origin.

ARTICLE VIII.

Neither authors, nor translators, nor their lawful representatives or assigns, shall be entitled in either country to the protection stipulated by the preceding Articles, nor shall copyright be claimable in either country, unless the work shall have been registered in the manner following, that is to say:—

1. If the work be one that has first appeared in the dominions of His Sardinian Majesty, it must

ARTICOLO IV.

Le stipulazioni degli Articoli precedenti si applicheranno parimente alla rappresentazione di opere drammatiche e all' esecuzione di componenti musicali, semprechè le leggi di ciascuno dei due Stati siano o vengano ad essere applicabili sotto questo rapporto, alle opere drammatiche e musicali che vi siano rappresentate o eseguite pubblicamente per la prima volta.

Tuttavia, perchè l'autore abbia diritto alla protezione legale circa la traduzione di un' opera drammatica, tale traduzione dovrà pubblicarsi nei tre mesi dalla registrazione e dal deposito dell' originale.

È inteso che la protezione stipulata nel presente Articolo non ha per effetto di vietare le imitazioni di buona fede o gli adattamenti di opere drammatiche alle scene dei due Stati rispettivamente, ma soltanto d'impedire le traduzioni in contraffazione.

La questione d'imitazione o di contraffazione sarà determinata in tutti i casi dai tribunale degli Stati rispettivi e secondo le leggi ivi vigenti.

ARTICOLO V.

Non ostante il disposto dagli Articoli I e II della presente Convenzione, gli articoli di giornali o di pubblicazioni periodiche, usciti in luce nell' uno dei due Stati, potranno essere riprodotti o tradotti nei giornali o nelle pubblicazioni periodiche dell' altro Stato, purchè vi si indichi la loro fonte.

Però questo permesso non comprenderà la riproduzione nell' uno dei due Stati di articoli (eccettuati quelli di politica discussione) inseriti in giornali o pubblicazioni periodiche usciti in luce nell' altro Stato, i cui autori nel giornale o nella pubblicazione in cui apparvero tali articoli, avessero esplicitamente dichiarato che ne interdicono la riproduzione.

ARTICOLO VI.

L'introduzione e la vendita in ciascuno dei due Stati delle copie contraffatte di opere protette contro la contraffazione a tenore degli Articoli I, II, III e V della presente Convenzione, sono vietate, sia che dette copie provengano dallo Stato ove l'opera fu pubblicata, sia che provengano d'altronde.

ARTICOLO VII.

In caso di contravvenzione alle disposizioni degli Articoli precedenti, le opere o pubblicazioni in contraffazione saranno sequestrate e distrutti; ed i colpevoli di tale reato saranno passibili in ciascuno Stato delle pene ed azioni che sono o fossero prescritte dalle leggi di esso Stato contro il medesimo reato commesso a proposito di opere o produzioni d'origine nazionale.

ARTICOLO VIII.

Gli autori e i traduttori, non che i loro legali rappresentanti o aventi causa, non avranno diritto, nell' uno o nell' altro Stato, alla protezione stipulata cogli Articoli precedenti, e il diritto di autore non potrà essere invocato nell' uno dei due Stati, se l'opera non sarà stata registrata nel seguente modo, cioè:—

1. Se l'opera comparve per la prima volta negli Stati di Sua Maestà Sarda, dovrà essere registrata be registered at the Hall of the Company of Stationers in London (Stationers' Hall);

2. If the work be one that has first appeared in the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty, it must be registered at the Ministry of the Interior (Ministero dell' Interno) at Turin.

No person shall be entitled to such protection as aforesaid, unless he shall have duly complied with the laws and regulations of the respective countries in regard to the work in respect of which such protection may be claimed. With regard to books, maps, and prints, and also with regard to dramatic works and musical compositions (unless such dramatic works and musical compositions shall be in manuscript only), no person shall be entitled to such protection unless he shall have delivered gratuitously, at one or other of the places mentioned above, as the case may be, one copy of the best edition, or in the best state, in order to its being deposited at the place appointed for that purpose in each of the two countries: that is to say, in the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty, at the British Museum in London; and in the dominions of His Sardinian Majesty, at the Ministry of the Interior (Ministero dell' Interno) at Turin.

In every case, the formality of deposit and registration must be fulfilled within three months after the first publication of the work in the other country. With regard to works published in parts, each part shall be treated as a separate work.

A certified copy of the entry in the Register Book of the Company of Stationers in London shall confer, within the British dominions, the exclusive right of re-publication, until a better right shall have been established by any other party before a Court of Justice.

The certificate given under the laws of the States of His Sardinian Majesty, proving the registration of any work in that country, shall be valid for the same purpose throughout the above-mentioned States.

A certificate or certified copy of the registration of any work so registered in either country shall, if required, be delivered at the time of registration; and such certificate shall state the exact date at which the registration was made.

The charge for the registration of a single work, under the stipulations of this Article, shall not exceed one shilling in England, nor one franc twenty-five centimes in the States of His Sardinian Majesty; and the further charge for a certificate of such registration shall not exceed the sum of five shillings in England, nor six francs and twenty-five centimes in the States of His Sardinian Majesty.

The provisions of this Article shall not extend to articles which may appear in newspapers or periodicals; which shall be protected from re-publication or translation simply by a notice from the author, as prescribed by Article V. But if any article or work which has originally appeared in a newspaper or periodical shall afterwards be published in a separate form, it shall then become subject to the stipulations of the present Article.

ARTICLE IX.

With regard to any article other than books, prints, maps, and musical publications, in respect to which protection may be claimable under Article I of the present Convention, it is agreed that any other mode of registration than that pre-all' ufficio della Società dei Libraj di Londra (Stationers' Hall);

2. Se l'opera comparve per la prima volta negli Stati di Sua Maestà Britannica, dovrà essere registrata al Ministero dell' Interno a Torino.

Niuno avrà diritto a detta protezione, se non avrà debitamente osservato le leggi e i regolamenti dei rispettivi Stati, relativamente all' opera in di cui favore sarebbe invocata la protezione. I libri, le carte, e le stampe, come pure le opere drammatiche e i componimenti musicali (a meno che tali opere drammatiche e componimenti musicali fossero ancora manoscritti), non godranno di detta protezione se non sarà stato consegnato gratuitamente nell' uno o nell' altro dei due luoghi prementovati, secondo il caso, un esemplare della migliore edizione e nel migliore stato, per essere depositato nel luogo indicato a quest' oggetto in ciascuno dei due Stati: vale a dire, negli Stati di Sua Maestà Sarda, in Torino al Ministero dell' Interno, e negli Stati di Sua Maestà Britannica, al Museo Britannico di Londra.

In ogni caso le formalità del deposito e della registrazione dovranno essere adempiute entro i tre mesi dalla prima pubblicazione dell' opera nell' altro Stato. Rispetto alle opere pubblicate per dispense, ciascuna dispensa sarà considerata come un' opera separata.

Una copia autentica dell' iscrizione sul registro del Ministero dell' Interno in Torino conferirà negli Stati di Sua Maestà Sarda il diritto esclusivo di riproduzione, infino a che un miglior diritto non sia stato riconosciuto in favore altrui nanti i tribunali.

Una copia autentica dell' iscrizione sul libro dei registri della Società dei Libraj di Londra, avrà lo stesso effetto negli Stati di Sua Maestà Britannica.

Nell' atto della registrazione di un' opera nell' uno dei due Stati, se ne rilascerà, in seguito a domanda, un certificato o copia autentica, e questo certificato porterà la data precisa in cui ebbe luogo la registrazione.

Il costo della registrazione d'una sola opera, conforme alle stipulazioni del presente Articolo, non oltrepasserà negli Stati di Sua Maestà Sarda la somma di una lira e venti-cinque centesimi, e negli Stati di Sua Maestà Britannica quella di uno scellino; e le altre spese pel certificato di registrazione non oltrepasseranno la somma di sei lire e venti-cinque centesimi negli Stati di Sua Maestà Sarda, e quella di cinque scellini negli Stati di Sua Maestà Britannica.

Le stipulazioni di questo Articolo non si estenderanno agli articoli di giornali o di pubblicazioni periodiche, i quali saranno guarentiti contro la riproduzione o la traduzione, mediante il semplice avviso dell' autore, qual è prescritto dall' Articolo V. Ma se un articolo o un' opera che fosse uscita in luce per la prima volta in un giornale o in una pubblicazione periodica, venisse poi riprodotta a parte, dovrà allora andar soggetta alle stipulazioni del presente Articolo.

Rispetto a tutti gli altri articoli che non siano libri, stampe, carte, e pubblicazioni musicali, pei quali si potesse invocare la protezione in virtù del Articolo I della presente Convenzione, rimane convenuto che qualunque altro modo di registra-

ARTICLE X.

It is agreed that if by any Convention for the protection of copyright in works of literature or of art, greater favours than those stipulated by the present Convention should be accorded by either of the High Contracting Parties to a third Power, the same advantages shall be extended to the other Party on the same conditions.

ARTICLE XI.

In order to facilitate the execution of the present Convention, the two High Contracting Parties engage to communicate to each other the laws and regulations which may hereafter be established in their respective territories, with respect to copyright in works or productions protected by the stipulations of the present Convention.

ARTICLE XII.

The stipulations of the present Convention shall in no way affect the right which each of the two High Contracting Parties expressly reserves to itself, of controlling or prohibiting, by measures of legislation or of internal police, the sale, circulation, representation, or exhibition of any work or production in regard to which either country may deem it expedient to exercise that right.

ARTICLE XIII.

Nothing in this Convention shall be construed to affect the right of either of the two High Contracting Parties to prohibit the importation into its own dominions of such books as, by its internal law, or under engagements with other States, are or may be declared piracies, or infringements of copyright.

ARTICLE XIV.

The present Convention shall come into operation as soon as possible after the exchange of the ratifications.* Due notice shall be given beforehand in each country, by the Government of that country, of the day which may be fixed upon for its coming into operation; and the stipulations of the Convention shall apply only to works or articles published after that day.

The Convention shall continue in force for six years from the day on which it may come into operation; and if neither Party shall, twelve months before the expiration of the said period of six years, give notice of its intention to terminate its operation, the Convention shall continue in force for a year longer, and so on from year to year, until the expiration of a year's notice from either party for its termination.

The High Contracting Parties, however, reserve to themselves the power of making by common consent, in this Convention, any modifications which may not be inconsistent with its spirit and principles, and which experience of its working may show to be desirable.

ARTICOLO X.

E convenuto che se in una Convenzione qualunque per garantire la proprietà letteraria e artistica, fossero concessi favori maggiori di quelli stipulati dalla presente Convenzione, dall' una delle Alte Parti Contraenti ad una terza Potenza, i medesimi vantaggi saranno accordati all' altra Parte sotto le medesime condizioni.

ARTICOLO XI.

Nell' intento di agevolare l' esecuzione della presente Convenzione, le due Alte Parti Contraenti promettono di comunicarsi scambievolmente le leggi e i regolamenti che potessero essere ulteriormente stabiliti negli Stati rispettivi intorno al diritto di autore sulle opere o produzioni protette in virtù delle stipulazioni della presente Convenzione.

ARTICOLO XII.

Le stipulazioni della presente Convenzione non potranno in alcuna guisa pregiudicare il diritto che ciascuna delle due Alte Parti Contraenti si riserva espressamente di sorvegliare o di vietare con misure legislative o di polizia interna, la vendita, la circolazione, la rappresentazione, o l' esposizione di quelle opere o produzioni riguardo alle quali l' uno o l' altro Stato giudicasse conveniente di esercitare questo diritto.

Nessuna stipulazione della presente Convenzione potrà interpretarsi in guisa da pregiudicare il diritto dell' una o dell' altra Parte Contraente di vietare l' importazione nei proprii Stati dei libri che, a norma delle sue leggi interni o per obblighi contratti con altri Stati, sono o saranno dichiarati come frodolenti o lesivi del diritto di autore.

ARTICOLO XIV.

La presente Convenzione diverrà esecutoria il più presto possibile dopo lo scambio delle ratifiche. In ciascuno dei due Stati il Governo avrà cura di far conoscere preventivamente il giorno che sarà fissato per metterla in vigore; e le stipulazioni di essa non saranno applicabili che alle opere o agli articoli pubblicati dopo detto giorno.

La Convenzione rimarrà in vigore per sei anni dal giorno in cui potrà essere messa in vigore; e se l' una delle Parti non avrà significato, dodici mesi prima della scadenza di detto periodo, la sua intenzione di farne cessare gli effetti, la Convenzione continuerà a rimanere in vigore un anno ancora, e così di anno in anno successivamente fino allo spirare di un anno dacchè l' una o l' altra Parte l' avrà denunciata.

Le Alte Parti Contraenti si riservano tuttavia la facoltà d' introdurre di comune accordo nella presente Convenzione tutti quelli modificazioni che non saranno incompatibili collo spirito e coi principii di essa, e di cui l' esperienza avesse dimostrato la convenienza.

And do hereby fix and determine the Rates of Pilotage hereafter specified to be paid to the Pilots appointed by the said Trustees, under the powers and provisions of the said "Swansea Harbour Act, 1854:"—

1. No person shall be licensed to act as a pilot before he is twenty-one years of age, and has served for six years at sea, of which two years shall have been in a coasting vessel trading to and from the Port of Swansea, and shall pass a satisfactory examination before the Harbour Master, and produce certificates of good conduct and sobriety to the Executive Committee prior to his appointment under the Common Seal of the Trustees.

2. Every pilot boat other than the present pilot boats now licensed, must be of the burthen of eighteen tons or upwards, new measurement, under the provisions of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," and must be kept in good repair and well found with masts, rigging, sails, anchors, cables, and every other necessary material to the satisfaction of the Harbour Master, together with an approved chart of the Bristol Channel, a copy of the Swansea Tide Table for the current year, and a good telescope, and lantern.

3. Every pilot boat shall be painted outside entirely black, with the exception of the letter S and the number of her license in white on each bow; and shall have the letter S and her number on her sails, above the reef, such letter and number to be 2½ feet in length for the boats now licensed, and four feet in length for cutters.

4. Each pilot boat shall have, at least, four pilots belonging to her, who shall be appointed to their respective boats by the Harbour Master, so and in such manner that each boat may carry a proportionate number, or as nearly so as is practicable.

5. The names of the pilots belonging to each boat shall be painted at full length, within the stern of the boat to which they belong, in black letters, two inches in length, on a white ground.

6. The pilots' licenses shall be renewed annually, on the first Monday in July, and shall expire on the 31st day of July in the following year. Each pilot shall pay for his license, two guineas, and for each renewal, two guineas.

7. Each pilot shall pay a poundage of sixpence in the pound on his earnings, which shall go to the Pilots' Superannuation Fund and Widows' Fund.

8. Each pilot shall at the expiration of every calendar month deliver to the Harbour Master, at

30. Before obtaining a license, the owners of each Pilot boat shall cause the same to be valued, and shall pay to the Harbour Master a deposit of £5 per cent. on such valuation, and an additional sum of ten shillings per cent. per month, such sums to be paid into the Glamorganshire Bank, in the joint names of the Harbour Master and Treasurer, to accumulate at interest, until a sum of £300 is made up, when subscription shall cease until again required.

The above sums shall form a Mutual Insurance Fund against loss or damage of any pilot boat. In the event of total loss of any pilot boat, the owners shall receive from the Fund one half the valuation of such boat (unless such boat has been wilfully lost or destroyed by the owner), or in case of damage, 5 to 10 per cent. on valuation, the amount to be determined by a Committee of Owners (one for each boat), the Harbour Master to act as umpire in case of dispute.

In the event of a boat being withdrawn from the list of Pilot Boats, the owners shall be entitled to receive back from the Fund, such proportion of their deposit and subscriptions as shall not have been expended, but without any interest thereon.

The owners of any new pilot boat shall not be entitled to receive from the Fund, in respect of any loss or injury, until they shall have subscribed and paid to the Fund, an amount equal to the amount then paid, and unexpended, by the owners of the then licensed boats.

Upon the Insurance Fund being reduced below £300, the monthly subscriptions shall re-commence, and be paid until the sum of £300 is again accumulated.

The Boats shall be re-valued annually on the first Monday in July.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Aidan, situate in the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, in the county of Lancaster, and diocese of Chester.

"And we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said John Shaw Leigh and John Stewart (testified as aforesaid) that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Aidan, Liverpool, shall belong to and be exercised jointly by the Bishop of the diocese of Chester, the Rector of the said parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, and the Rector of the said parish of Liverpool for the time being.

"We therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

is bounded on the south by an imaginary line commencing on the boundary dividing the said parish of Liverpool from the district of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, Liverpool, before mentioned at a point on the eastern bank of the Leeds and Liverpool Canal, opposite to the middle of the eastern end of the branch of such canal, called the New Cut, and extending thence westward across the said canal to and along the middle of the New Cut to a point in the middle of Great Howard-street, and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named street as far as a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of the wall or fence which forms the southern boundary of the premises belonging to the Stanley Dock, and extending thence westward to and along the middle of such wall or fence to its extremity, and continuing thence in the last-named direction in a straight line to a point in the middle of Regent-road aforesaid, and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of the wall or fence which forms the northern boundary of the premises, called the Clarence Graving Docks, and extending thence westward to and along the middle of such wall or fence to its extremity, and continuing thence in the last-named direction in a straight line (crossing the basin of the Clarence Graving Dock) to the boundary of the parish of Liverpool, in the middle of the river Mersey.

NOTICE.

THE Secretary of State for India in Council has resolved that all officers of Her Majesty's Indian Military Forces, entitled by length of service to full pay pension, who may retire in this country before the 1st August next, shall be granted an addition of £50 per annum to the pensions to which they may be entitled, under the regulations of the Service.

STAFF CORPS FOR INDIA.

VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide a body of Officers for Our service in India, by whom various offices and appointments hitherto held by Officers borne on the strength of the several corps or regiments of Our forces in India shall in future be held; and whereas Our Secretary of State for India in Council has resolved to charge upon the revenues of India the sum necessary to provide the pay, half-pay, and pensions of such body of Officers on the scale hereinafter contained, Our will and pleasure is, that a corps be formed in each of the Presidencies of Our Indian dominions, to be denominated the Bengal, Madras, and Bombay Staff Corps respectively, to consist of such Officers as may be required for such employment and are selected for such purpose by Our Governments in India, with the approbation of Our Secretary of State for India in Council.

It is also Our will and pleasure, that all Officers now holding, or who immediately before the commencement of their present unexpired furlough may have held, such appointments, and in future Officers belonging to any of Our land forces serving in India, under the rank of regimental Field Officer, who shall have served three years with a regiment, of which two shall have been in India, shall be eligible to enter such Staff Corps, but such Officers will not be permanently transferred to the Staff Corps, unless fully qualified, and until they shall have passed such periods of probation as may be determined on for the branch of the Indian Service for which they may be selected. Officers will receive commissions in the Staff Corps on their names being submitted to us by Our Secretary of State for India.

It is Our further will and pleasure, that the promotion and pay of the Staff Corps shall be regulated as follows:—

1. Ensigns, when permanently transferred to the Staff Corps, to have the rank of Lieutenant. Other Officers to have the rank which they may hold in their regiments.

2. Promotion in the Staff Corps to be governed by length of service.

Officers, after twelve years' service, of which four must have been in the Staff Corps, to become Captains.

After twenty years' service, of which six must have been in the Staff Corps, to become Majors.

After twenty-six years' service, of which eight must have been in the Staff Corps, to become Lieutenant-Colonels.

Five years' service in the Staff Corps as Lieutenant-Colonel to entitle the Officer so employed to the brevet rank of Colonel.

3. Officers now in Staff employment in India, joining the Staff Corps on its formation, shall count their previous Staff service towards promotion to the following extent:—

One step of rank will be given to every Officer whose period of service would qualify him for it, according to the above rules. An interval of two years, at least, must intervene between each succeeding step.

4. Officers in the Staff Corps will be eligible for brevet rank in common with the rest of the Army.

5. Officers of the Staff Corps, holding military appointments will take military command according to their Army rank, but Officers whilst holding only civil appointments will not be entitled to assume such command.

6. Exchanges may be allowed between Officers of the Staff Corps under the substantive rank of Field Officer and regimental Officers of the same rank, on the recommendation of the Indian Governments. Officers of the Staff Corps exchanging into a regiment will become the juniors of their regimental rank.

7. The power of removing Officers from the effective list of the Staff Corps will be exercised by Us through Our Secretary of State for India.

8. Officers of the Staff Corps will receive pay according to the following scale:—

	Whilst required to remain in India.			Out of India.
	Per Mensem.			Per Diem.
	R.	A.	P.	£	s.	d.

Captain ...	374	1	6	0	10	6
Lieutenant ...	225	12	0	0	6	6

Every Officer when in active employment will also receive, in addition to the above pay, such a sum as will make his total pay and allowances up to the sum assigned by the Governments in India, with the approval of the Secretary of State for India in Council, as the consolidated pay of the office which he may hold. Eventually a certain proportion of the senior Officers of the Staff Corps will receive Colonel's allowance.

9. Officers of the Staff Corps will be allowed to retire on the following scale of pension, provided that not less than half of the required periods of service shall have been passed in the Staff Corps.

Scale.		Per Annum.

Officers of Her Majesty's Indian Forces joining the Staff Corps will be entitled to pensions under the regulations of the Indian Service.

10. Officers of the Staff Corps in England who may not wish to retire, but who are unable to return to India, and Officers removed from the effective list who may not be entitled to retire on the above scale of pension, will be placed on a half-pay list, provided they have served three years in India in the Staff Corps, on the same rate of half-pay, and on the same conditions, as Officers of a similar rank in Our Army.

11. It is also Our will and pleasure, that this Warrant shall be administered and interpreted by Our Secretary of State for India in Council, who shall be the sole and standing authority upon the matters therein contained.
